ALSO VISITED G. A. R. MEN.

Made a Speech at a Banquet Last Night Said Americans Had No Imperial Design Expected a Great Future For the Inhabitants of Philippines.

BOSTON, Feb. 17.-President McKinley today visited the G. A. R. encampment, dined at the Algonquin club and held a reception there. He will drive from the clubhouse to the South Union station and leave Boston about 5:10

The president was the guest of the Home Market club at a banquet in his honor at Mechanics hall last night Messrs: Long, Alger, Bliss, Gage and Smith of his cabinet accompanied him, cial school and was then sent to England together with Congressman Grosvenor of Ohio. The arrival of the presidential train at the south terminal station was the occasion of a great outburst of enthusiasm from the thousands of citizens who lined the streets on the line of the procession from the station to the hotel. The remainder of the day, after the arrival at the hotel was spent in quietude by the president until about 4:15, when he was escorted to Mechan ics hall, to participate in the reception and banquet of the Home Market club. President McKinley in his speech at the banquet said in part:

We hear no complaint of the relation created by the war between this government and the islands of Cuba and Porto Rico. There are some, however, who regard the Philippines as in a different relation: but, whatever variety of views there may be on this phase o the question, there is universal agreement that the Philippines shall not be turned back to Spain. No true American consents to that,

There was but one alternative and that was either Spain or the United States in the Phil ippines. The other suggestions-first that they should be tossed into the arena of con tention for the strife of nations; or, second, be left to the anarchy and chaos of no protector ate at all, were too shameful to be considered. The treaty gave them to the United States. Could we have required less and done ou duty? Could we, after freeing the Filipino from the domination of Spain, have left them without government and without power to protect life and property or to perform the international obligations essential to an independent state? Could we have left them in a state of anarchy and justified ourselves in our own consciences or before the tribunal of mankind? Could we have done that in the sight of God and man?

Our concern was not for territory or trade or empire, but for the people whose interests and destiny, without our willing it, had been put in our hands. It was with this feeling that from the first day to the last not one word or line went from the executive in Washington to our military and naval commanders at Manila, or to bir peace commissioners a Paris, that did not put as the sole purpose t be kept in mind first, after the success of our arms and the maintenance of our own honor. the welfare and happiness and the rights o the inhabitants of the Philippine islands. Did we need their consent to perform a great act for humanity? We had it in every aspiration of their minds, in every hope of their hearts Was it necessary to ask their consent to cap ture Manila, the capital of their islands? Di we ask their consent to liberate them from Spanish sovereignty or to enter Manila bay and destroy the Spanish sea power there? We did not ask these; we were obeying a higher moral obligation which rested on us and which did not require anybody's consent. We were doing our duty by them with the consent of our own consciences and with the approval of civilization. Every present obligation has been met and fulfilled in the expulsion of spanish sovereignty from their islands an while the war that destroyed it was in prog ress we could not ask their views. Nor can we now ask their consent.

It is not a good time for the liberator to submit important questions concerning liberty and government to the liberated while they are engaged in shooting down their rescuers. We have now ended the war with Spain The treaty has been ratified by more than two thirds of the senate of the United States and by the judgment of nine tenths of its people.

The future of the Philippine islands is now in the hands of the American people. The whole subject is now with congress and con gress is the voice, the conscience and the judg ment of the American people. Upon their judgment and conscience can we not rely? 1 believe in them, I trust them. I know of no better or safer human tribunal than the

Until congress shall direct otherwise, it will be the duty of the executive to possess and hold the Philippines, giving to the people thereof peace and order and beneficient government, affording them every opportunity to prosecute their lawful pursuits, encouraging them in thrift and industry, making them feel and know that we are their friends, not their enemies, that their good is our aim, that their welfare is our welfare, but that neither their aspirations nor ours can be realized until our authority is acknowledged and unquestioned.

That the inhabitants of the Philippines will be benefited by this republic is my unshaken belief; that they will have a kindlier govern ment under our guidance and that they will be aided in every possible way to be self re specting and self-governing people is as true as that the American people love liberty and have an abiding faith in their own govern ment and in their own institutions.

No imperial designs lurk in the American mind. They are alien to American sentiment. thought and purpose. Our priceless principles undergo no change under a tropical sun. If we can benefit these remote peoples, who will object? If in the years of the future they are established in government under law and humanity?

Miles Said He Would Continue to Protect Them.

ALGER WAS HISSED IN BOSTON.

During the Parade There Were Yells of Derision and Hisses-As His Carriage Passed One Place, There Were Cheers For General Miles.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 17.—A local paper telegraphed General Miles for a reply to the address of Dr. P. S. Conner at the testimonial banquet in this city Tuesday night. The commanding general replied without mentioning the name of Dr. Conner or any other member of the war investigating commission or even referring to the speech of Dr. Conner or any of the charges about which inquiry had been made of him. His telegram reads:

"Washington, Feb. 16. "In 36 years' continuous service I am unconscious of having neglected or exceeded my duty to superiors in command, to the brave men under my command or to my country I shall con tinue to do what I believe to be for the best interests of our country and, I hope, protect the health, life and honor of those who risk all for their country and its people.

HISSES FOR ALGER.

Some of the Crowd In Boston Insulted the Secretary-Cheered General Miles' Name.

Boston, Feb. 17.—Several times dur ing the parade and amid the genera cheering, for the president on his ar rival, yells of derision and hisses were heard for Secretary of War Alger. This was particularly noticeable at the corner of Park and Beacon streets.

"What's the matter with Long?" frequently was the cry.

"What's the matter with Alger?" was shouted as the procession passed along summer street. "Yah, yah, yah, beef! beef!" jeered the crowd. It took Mr. Alger some time to grasp the situation. At length, nowever, he caught the drift of the shouting and his gracious smiles stiffened into a look of cold impassiveness.

At the corner of Beacon and Charles streets a group of young militiamen establ shed themselves with the deliberate intention of giving Secretary of War Alger a snub when he passed, as was apparent from their conversation, and when Secretary Alger's carriage was abreast of them they shouted in unison "three cheers for General Miles."

At several points attempts were made to hiss as Secretary Alger passed, but cheers for President McKinley'drowned

BEEF INQUIRY COURT.

Members Gathered In Washington and Reported-They Will Formally Meet Today.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The members of the Miles court of inquiry held an informal conference, and at its conclusion Colonel Davis, the recorder, announced that the formal meeting of the court would be deferred until today. It had not been determined, Colonel Davis said, who would be the first witness. As recorder Colonel Davis has been getting together a list of witnesses who will be likely to shed light on the character of the food furnished. As General Miles is specifically named in the order convening the court as authority for the charges it is rather expected that his testimony will be taken first as a basis for the subsequent inquiry. The court has not been informed thus far that General Miles will be represented by counsel, though this is his right. It was stated that anyone whose course of action was involved in anyway had the right to be represented by counsel.

This, it was stated, would permit beef concerns as well as any other firms or individuals directly involved in the inquiry to be represented by counsel if they saw nt. There was no notice of counsel, however, and no legal representatives were present.

Ex-Governor Woodbury of Vermont. one of the members of the war investigating commission, called while the members of the court were in informal conference and had a long private talk with Colonel Davis.

MISSING SOLDIERS TURNED UP.

Senor Montero Rios Resigned.

MADRID, Feb. 17 .- Senor Montero Rios, who was president of the Spanish peace commission, resigned the presidency of the senate owing to the popular outery against his defense of the commission.

BLOCKED PAYING SPAIN.

House Member Succeeded In Having the $20,000,000 Appropriation Stricken From Sundry Civil Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 .- During the consideration of the sundry civil bill, in the house, the paragraph carrying the appropriation of $20,000,000 for payment to Spain under the terms of the peace treaty was stricken out upon a point of order made by Mr. Wheeler, a Kentucky Democrat, who declared that he opposed the appropriation on principle, and would resort to any technicality to defeat it. The point of order was debated for hours, its determination hinging upon the question of whether the ratification of the treaty by the senate and its signing by the presiden vitalized it without the action of the Spanish cortes. Warrant of law wa necessary to make the appropriation in

Mr. Hopkins (Rep., Ills.), who was in the chair, sustained the point of or der against it, and upon an appeal, his decision was sustained-149 to 56. Mr. Cannon then attempted to have the appropriation inserted by unanimous consent, but Mr. Wneeler again objected. A strong intimation was given by Mr. Cannon that a way would be found within the rules to make the appropriation before the adjournment of congress. He referred undoubtedly to the proba bility that the appropriation would be placed on the bill by the senate.

After the sundry civil bill had been completed and reported to the house Mr. Hepburn (la.), the champion of the Nicaragua canal bill, moved to recommit it with instructions to report it back with the canal bill incorporated in it. This was an unexpected move, as it was generally understood that Mr. Hepburn had abandoned all hope after his defeat, Wednesday. But he believed that his motion would have additional strength in the house, where members could be put upon record. The motion was promptly declared out of order by the speaker, whereupon Mr. Hepburn appealed, and Mr. Payne (N. Y.) moved to lay the appeal on the table. Upon the latter motion the vote was taken and the result was 97 ayes to 67 nays. As no quorum was developed on the vote, owing to the lateness of the hour. they managed to carry an adjournment until today.

ARMY BILL REPORTED.

Naval Personnel Bill Taken Up and Read In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 .- The army reorganization bill was reported to the senate and Mr. Hawley (Conn.), chairman of the military affairs committee, gave notice that he would move to proceed to its consideration at the earliest possible time. The naval personnel bill was taken up and read, but no effort made to proceed further with its consideration.

The military academy appropriation bill was passed. The postoffice appropriation bill was under consideration during the greater part of the afternoon, but was not disposed of finally. A spirited debate occurred over the amendment of the senate committee providing for an appropriation to secure fast mail service between New York and Washington and Atlanta and New Orleans. The amendment was retained in the

To Make Corbin a Major General. WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.-The military affairs committee reported favorably the senate bill to make Adjutant General H. C. Corbin, a major general The house bill for the same purpose was reported already and this action was taken to facilitate action upon it in the house. It was not the intention of Chairman Hull to ask unanimous con sent for the consideration of this bill but to move its passage under suspension of the rules during the last six days of the session.

T. e Mrs. George Case.

CANTON, O., Feb. 17.-A demurrer was filed to the plea in abatement to the indictment against Mrs. Anna E. George. Prosecutor Pomerene interposed the demurrer to various grounds in the plea because he claimed they were insufficient in substance to abate the indictment. He said that in case the demurrer to the plea in abatement was overruled he would probably file a reply to portions of the plea, as there were several questions which would properly be raised that way.

Ballot For United States Senator.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 17.—The senatorial ballot showed 33 legislators paired or not voting. Senator Quay was again 13 votes short of the number necessary to re elect. The vote follows: Quay, 97; Jenks, 74; Daizell, 15; Stone, 5; Stewart, 6; Irvin, 6; Huff, 5; Tubbs, 2; Markle, 1; Widener, 2; Riter, 2; Rice, 2; Grow, 1. Total, 218. Necessary to a choice, 110. Absent and paired, 33.

CORNERSTONE LAID.

Impressive Ceremonies at the State Capitol.

MONNETT ATTACKED THE TRUSTS.

The Attorney-General Delivered Some Blows In His Speech-Members of the Legislature Held Their Reunion and Had a Banquet.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 17 .- The city was filled with strangers there being a double attraction of general public interest-the laying of the cornerstone of the new $400,000 addition to the statehouse being of first importance and the reunion of the members of the seventythird general assembly the secondary consideration. The reunion took the place of the adjourned session of the legislature, since the adoption of the biennial session idea. The cornerstone exercises took place in the afternoon, when Governor Bushnell, after an invocation by Rev. H. H. Barbour, laid the stone. The vast assemblage then adjourned to the board of trade auditorium, where the program was concluded. Addresses were made by Chief Justice J. P. Bradbury of the Ohio supreme court, Attorney General F. S. Monnett, Hon. Charles D. Wightman, Hou. A. J, Haslett and

Hon. William G. Deshler. The feature of the legislative reunion was a banquet at the Great Southern hotel last night. There were over 200 persons present at the banquet. An elaborate form of entertainment was given.

Attorney General Monnett said in

"In our constitution of 1851 we made a departure from the constitution of 1802 by delegating the power, with certain constitutional limitations, to the legislature to enact general laws creating corporations. This was an inpovation that, 50 years of experience in this add other states, is yet an experiment. There are Titanic tasks to be performed for which the human arm is not long enough and man's life not enduring enough. His mind is not powerful enough to carry on the great work of a continental railroad and other great enterprises, and therefore we felt justified in creating these fictitious entities called corporations. "If they have governmental functions granted to them by a state, they must exercise them for the public and the general weifare of the states the same as the sovereign itself would use them.

"For many purposes the income of these corporations is but another name for taxation, to the extent that they represent the government, their demeanor must be as a government. They can no moae discriminate against one cititizen as against another than the state could impose its taxes upon one to the exemption of another.

"If they exercise the right of eminent domain, they must also subject themselves to the principles of a common carrier. If they occupy our streets they must be amenable to the rules and regulations of the municipality where:n

they exist. "If they run pipe lines across private property, all parties desiring to avail themselves of this public carrier must be afforded equal opportunities, or, in a word to make myself understood; this judiciary building that we erect today, in the near future will be called upon to dispense justice, to right the wrongs, to reinstate the liberties of the individual citizen as against the usurped powers and rights of certain monopolics.

"We have loaned to them some of the functions of the government; we have given them the right to take private property for public purposes; we have permitted them to usurp our franchises in the highways, in the rivers and over the bridges; we have permitted them, for public purposes, to string wires across the country. The beneficent results from this modern system of de veloping our country and embellishing our cities has been, on every hand, applanded, and yet, on the other hand, many of the guardians of this sacred trust, these agents of the governmental functions bequeathed to them, have too often forgotten that these potent functions of government so loaned to them, if used, must be justly and fairly and legally exercised.

"Therefore, my countrymen, on this memorable occasion along with our rejoicing in the glorious victories abroad let us also turn our attentions to the serious problems that affect our homes, affect our property and affect our liberties, to determine in a legal, constitutional and peaceful way the destiny of the citizen at home.

"If you love your country, if you love the oppressed, if you are patriotic, you will not submit to aggressions and the subverting of the rights of the common man, either by bribery for position, or for the emoluments of office, but whenever and wherever you see tyranny in any form, oppression under anv guise, the using of the forms of government to unlawfully build up private estates at the expense of the common welfare, be men and rise above the baneful influences that would work your own destruction."

The Bis uit company Suit.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 17 .- In the state supreme court the National Biscuit company was granted until April 1 to anwer the interrogatories in the case of the state against the company.

HISSES FOR ALGER.

Some of the Crowd In Boston Insulted the Secretary-Cheered General Miles' Name.

Boston, Feb. 17.—Several times during the parade and amid the genera. cheering, for the president on his ar rival, yells of derision and hisses were heard for Secretary of War Alger. This was particularly noticeable at the corner of Park and Beacon streets.

"What's the matter with Long?" frequently was the cry.

"What's the matter with Alger?" was shouted as the procession passed along summer street. "lah, yah, yah, beef! beef!" jeered

the crowd. it took Mr. Alger some time to grasp the situation. At length, however, he caught the drift of the shouting and his gracious smiles stiffened into a look of cold impassiveness. At the corner of Beacon and Charles streets a group of young militiamen establ shed themselves with the deliberate intention of giving Secretary of War Alger a snub when he passed, as was apparent from their conversation, and when Secretary Alger's carriage was abreast of them they shouted in unison

"three cheers for General Miles." At several points attempts were made to hiss as Secretary Alger passed, but cheers for President McKinley'drowned

BEEF INQUIRY COURT.

Members Gathered In Washington and Reported-They Will Formally Meet Today.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The members of the Miles court of inquiry held an informal conference, and at its conclusion Colonel Davis, the recorder, announced that the formal meeting of the court would be deferred until today. It had not been determined, Colonel Davis said, who would be the first witness. As recorder Colonel Davis has been getting together a list of witnesses who will be likely to shed light on the character of the food furnished.

As General Miles is specifically named in the order convening the court as authority for the charges it is rather expected that his testimony will be taken first as a basis for the subsequent inquiry. The court has not been informed thus far that General Miles will be represented by counsel, though this is his right. It was stated that anyone whose course of action was involved in anyway had the right to be represented by counsel.

This, it was stated, would permit beef concerns as well as any other firms or individuals directly involved in the inquiry to be represented by counsel if they saw nt. There was no notice of counsel, however, and no legal representatives were present.

Ex-Governor Woodbury of Vermont. one of the members of the war investigating commission, called while the members of the court were in informal conference and had a long private taik with Colonel Davis.

BLOCKED PAYING SPAIN.

House Member Succeeded In Having the $20,000,000 Appropriation Stricken From Sundry Civil Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 .- During the consideration of the sundry civil bill, in the house, the paragraph carrying the appropriation of $20,000,000 for payment to Spain under the terms of the peace treaty was stricken out upon a point of order made by Mr. Wheeler, a Kentucky Democrat, who declared that he opposed the appropriation on principle, and would resort to any technicality to defeat it. The point of order was debated for hours, its determination hinging upon the question of whether the ratification of the treaty by the senate and its signing by the president vitalized it without the action of the Spanish cortes. Warrant of law was necessary to make the appropriation in order.

Mr. Hopkins (Rep., Ills.), who was in the chair, sustained the point of order against it, and upon an appeal, his decision was sustained-149 to 56. Mr. Cannon then attempted to have the appropriation inserted by unanimous consent, but Mr. Wneeler again objected. A strong intimation was given by Mr. Cannon that a way would be found within the rules to make the appropriation before the adjournment of congress. He referred undoubtedly to the proba bility that the appropriation would be placed on the bill by the senate.

After the sundry civil bill had been completed and reported to the house Mr. Hepburn (Ia.), the champion of the Nicaragua canal bill, moved to recommit it with instructions to report it back with the canal bill incorporated in it. This was an unexpected move, as it was generally understood that Mr. Hepburn had abandoned all hope after his defeat, Wednesday. But he believed that his motion would have additional strength in the house, where members could be put upon record. The motion was promptly declared out of order by the speaker, whereupon Mr. Hepburn to lay the appeal on the table. Upon the latter motion the vote was taken and the result was 97 ayes to 67 nays. As no quorum was developed on the vote, owing to the lateness of the hour. they managed to carry an adjournment until today.

M'KINLEY RECEIVED.

Boston People Met Him at Algonquin Club Today.

ALSO VISITED G. A. R. MEN.

Boston, Feb. 17.—President McKinlev today visited the G. A. R. encampment, dined at the Algonquin club and held a reception there. He will drive from the clubhouse to the South Union station and leave Boston about 5:10

The president was the guest of the Home Market club at a banquet in his honor at Mechanics hall last night Messrs: Long, Alger, Bliss, Gage and Smith of his cabinet accompanied him, together with Congressman Grosvenor of Onio. The arrival of the presidential train at the south terminal station was the occasion of a great outburst of enthusiasm from the thousands of citizens who lined the streets on the line of the procession from the station to the hotel. The remainder of the day, after the arrival at the hotel was spent in quietude by the president until about 4:15, when he was escorted to Mechan ics hall, to participate in the reception and banquet of the Home Market club. President McKinley in his speech at the banquet said in part: We hear no complaint of the relation-created by the war between this government and the islands of Cuba and Porto Rico. There are some, however, who regard the Philippines as in a different relation: but, whatever variety of views there may be on this phase o the question, there is universal agreement that the Philippines shall not be turned back to Spain. No true American consents to that,

There was but one alternative and that was either Spain or the United States in the Philippines. The other suggestions-first that they should be tossed into the arena of contention for the strife of nations; or, second, be left to the anarchy and chaos of no protector ate at all, were too shameful to be considered. The treaty gave them to the United States. Could we have required less and done ou duty? Could we, after freeing the Filipino from the domination of Spain, have left them without government and without power to protect life and property or to perform the international obligations essential to an independent state? Could we have left them in a state of anarchy and justified ourselves in our own consciences or before the tribunal of mankind? Could we have done that in the sight of God and man?

Our concern was not for territory or trad or empire, but for the people whose interests and destiny, without our willing it, had been put in our hands. It was with this feeling that from the first day to the last not one word or line went from the executive in Washington to our military and naval commanders at Manila, or to our peace commissioners a Paris, that did not put as the sole purpose to be kept in mind first, after the success of our arms and the maintenance of our own honor. the welfare and happiness and the rights of the inhabitants of the Philippine islands. Did we need their consent to perform a great act for humanity? We had it in every aspiration of their minds, in every hope of their hearts Was it necessary to ask their consent to capture Manila, the capital of their islands? Did we ask their consent to liberate them from Spanish sovereignty or to enter Manila bay and destroy the Spanish sea power there? We did not ask these; we were obeying a higher moral obligation which rested on us and which did not require anybody's consent. We were doing our duty by them with the consent of our own consciences and with the approval of civilization. Every present obligation has been met and fulfilled in the expulsion of spanish sovereignty from their islands an while the war that destroyed it was in prog ress we could not ask their views. Nor can we now ask their consent.

It is not a good time for the liberator to submit important questions concerning liberty and government to the liberated while they are engaged in shooting down their rescuers We have now ended the war with Spain The treaty has been ratified by more than two thirds of the senate of the United States and by the judgment of nine-tenths of its people. The future of the Philippine islands is now in the hands of the American people. The whole subject is now with congress and congress is the voice, the conscience and the judg ment of the American people. Upon their judgment and conscience can we not rely? 1 believe in them, I trust them. I know of no better or safer human tribunal than the questioned. That the inhabitants of the Philippines will be benefited by this republic is my unshaken belief; that they will have a kindlier govern ment under our guidance and that they will be aided in every possible way to be self re specting and self-governing people is as true as that the American people love liberty and have an abiding faith in their own govern ment and in their own institutions.

No imperial designs lurk in the American mind. They are alien to American sentiment. thought and purpose. Our priceless principles undergo no change under a tropical sun. If we can benefit these remote peoples, who will object? If in the years of the future they are established in government under law and liberty, who will regret our perils and sacri fices? Who will not rejoice in our heroism and humanity? I have no light or knowledge not common to my countrymen. I do not prophecy. The present is all absorbing to me but I cannot bound my vision by the bloods a ned trenches around Manila, where every red drop, whether misguided Filipino, is anguish to my heart; but by the broad range of future years, when that group of Islands under the impulse of the year just past shall have been specified. the year just past, shall have become the gems and giories of those tropical seas, a land of plenty and of increasing possibilities, a people redeemed from savage indolence and habits, devoted to the arts of peace, in touch with the commerce and trade of all nations, enjoying the blessings of freedom, of civil and religious liberty, of education and of homes and whose children and children's children shall for ages hence bless the American republic because it emancipated and re-deemed their fatherland and set them in the pathway of the world's best civilization.

PRESIDENT FAURE DEAD.

Chief Executive of France Expired From an Attack of Apoplexy-Sketch of His Career.

Paris, Feb. 17 .- M. Felix Faure, president of the republic of France died after an illness of about three hours of apoplexy.

Francois Felix Faure, sixth president the third republic of France, was born Jan. 20, 1811, in Paris, and was the son a cabinetma er.

He was educated at a private commerrial school and was then sent to England for two years to learn the language and become acquainted with the English methods of business. On his return to brance he went to Amboise and mastered the business of a currier. When quite young he married the daughter of M. Beiluot, an attorney at Amboise. Almost immediately afterward he settled at Havre as a commission merchant and soon became a leading shipowner.

He became president of the Havre chamber of commerce and duting the Franco-Prussian war held the once of deputy mayor of the city.

In these troublous times he was also captain of the Mobiles of the Seine Inferi euro, in which capacity he took part in the skirmishes near Havre, being recommended by Admiral Mouchey for the Legion of Honor,

During the war Gambetta sent him to England to buy arms for the Franco-Ti reurs and Mobiles. He was deprived of his deputy mayoralty by the Broglie cabinet of 1874, but he compensated himself for the loss of office by devoting increased attention to provident, educational and charitable institutions.

In August, 1881, he offered himself as a Republican candidate for parliament in the Third district of Havre and was elected. He was appointed under secretary of state for the colonies in the Gam betta administration, formed in November of that year, and held the same office in the ministries of M. Jules Ferry (1883), M. Brisson (1885) and M. Tirard (1887). In May, 1891, he became minister of ma-rine in M. Dupuy's cabinet and was appointed vice president of the chamber of deputies, a position to which he was several times elected.

On the retirement of M. Casimir-Perier. who resigned the presidency, Jan. 16, 18.5, he was chosen president by 430 votes as against 361 given to Henri Brisson, the election taking place Jan 17, 1895.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 17.-A local paper telegraphed General Miles for a reply to the address of Dr. P. S. Conner at the testimonial banquet in this city Tuesday night. The commanding general replied without mentioning the name of Dr. Conner or any other member of the war investigating commission or even referring to the speech of Dr. Conner or any of the charges about which inquiry had been made of him. His telegram reads:

"Washington, Feb. 16. "In 36 years' continuous service I am unconscious of having neglected or exceeded my duty to superiors in com mand, to the brave men under my command or to my country I shall con tinue to do what I believe to be for the best interests of our country and, I hope, protect the health, life and honor of those who risk all for their country and its people.

The beneficent results from this modern system of de veloping our country and embellishing our cities has been, on every hand, applanded, and yet, on the other hand, many of the guardians of this sacred trust, these agents of the governmental functions bequeathed to them, have too often forgotten that these potent functions of government so loaned to them, if used, must be justly and fairly and legally exercised.

"Therefore, my countrymen, on this memorable occasion along with our rejoicing in the glorious victories abroad let us also turn our attentions to the serious problems that affect our homes, affect our property and affect our liberties, to determine in a legal, constitutional and peaceful way the destiny of the citizen at home.

"If you love your country, if you love the oppressed, if you are patriotic, you will not submit to aggressions and the subverting of the rights of the common man, either by bribeav for position, or for the emoluments of office, but whenever and wherever you see tyranny in any form, oppression under any guise, the using of the forms of government to unlawfully build up private estates at the expense of the common welfare, be men and rise above the baneful influences that would work your own destruction."

Have a Committee at Work on Pension Bills.

TWO DOLLARS A DAY IS FAVORED

For the Men Who Were Confined In Rebel Strongholds During the Rebellion. A Matter of Interest to a Number of Liverpool Veterans.

The veteran soldiers of East Liverpool who were confined in southern prisons during the Rebellion will be interested in knowing that a committee of their state organization is at work in Columbus. The committee consists of D. S. Wilder, Columbus; I. F. Mack, Sandusky; Thomas Carpenter, New Albany. Their duty is to examine pension bills for ex-prisoners, and recommend such as the committee think best meets the wants of the organization.

The committee will have several bills before it, but it is almost without question that what is known as the Dingler bill will be indorsed. This bill provides that all soldiers of the war of the rebellion who were in Confederate prisons for 30 days or more shall receive $2 a day for each day of imprisonment over the 30 days, and that payment shall end their claims upon the government so far as the payment for time in the prisons shall be concerned. The bill does not in the remotest interfere with any claim the soldier may have for wounds or disability contracted at other times while in the army. It only provides for the prison experience.

Ladies Looked After Children Whose Parents Are III.

Yesterday afternoon several well known ladies of the city went to a shantyboat located between Market and Broadway, and found the father and mother of a number of children confined to their beds by illness. They were unable to provide for the children, and two of the younger ones were unable to go out on account of not having sufficient clothing. The women went away, but soon returned with clothing and medicine and other articles which were needed by the family. They cared for those who were sick as much as possible, and when they left one of the ladies took two children with her and will keep them at her home until the father has recovered sufficiently to provide for the family.

The family came to this city from Racine, Wis., several months ago, and since their arrival have had a hard time to obtain the necessaries of life. The township trustees have assisted them whenever they applied, but their calls at the office have not been frequent of Flood.

THE ICE IS MELTING RAPIDLY

All Local Floats Are In Condition to Meet a Rush of Water, but It Is Not Expected--The Stream Is Low at This

While the owners of coal floats here have expended considerable money in breaking the ice about the various crafts and preparing for a flood stage, it is now thought their work will be in vain. The ice since yesterday morning has been melting very fast, and about some of the floats is very thin. The effect of the another. high temperature has been very noticeable.

Rivermen have been preparing for a flood, not from any great fear that there will be one, but because they desire to be ready in the event of the unexpected happening. There is a great deal of snow and ice in the mountains, and those certain conditions will not materialize during the present state of the weather. Two days of copious rain must be had before the river will get high enough to become alarming.

The river is very low at present and every day the shore ice is becoming more extensive. The marks at the Market street landing today registered six feet and stationary.

A breakup of the ice under present weather conditions is expected by Sunday and not later than Tuesday. All the coal floats are in excellent condition, and the stage at the wharfboat has been pulled inside, and the boat is at present only a few feet from the shore and out of danger.

A BRIGHT BOY.

He Knew Where His Head Would

The Sewickley Valley relates the following:

"An amusing incident happened last week in Miss Andrew's room, No. 8, of the Sewickley school. County Superintendent Hamilton was making one of his visits and while examining the class pointed to a map of Minnesota and asked, 'If you should stand with your feet directly on this spot, next to the Canadian line, where would your head be?' It is a puzzling question to most children of that age and they answer usually, 'My head would be in Canada,' but one bright little fellow thought he mails. The theory is that these could knew at once and said: 'Please sir, my head would be in the air.' It was correct, though not the answer expected."

Miss Andrews is the daughter of Docfor Andrews, of this city. The county superintendent pronounced the school among the best in the county.

AN EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE.

Creston Clarke Pleased a Large Audience Last Night.

Creston Clarke and one of the best companies ever seen in the city last evening delighted a splendid audience at the Grand Opera House, the play being

"The Ragged Cavalier." Mr. Clarke has ever been a favorite with East Liverpool people, but last night he did better than usual. His impersonation of the penniless nobleman, who afterward regained favor at court, was perfection, while his anger when facing his enemies was perhaps the most powerful part of the play. Miss Adelaide Prince was the same sweet, loving character that East Liver | past 16 years we have waged a steady pool audiences have seen and appreciated at other times.

NOT MUCH DANGER NOW

Rivermen Do Not Fear a Big Flood.

THE ICE IS MELTING RAPIDLY

All Local Floats Are In Condition to Meet a Rush of Water, but It Is Not Expected .- The Stream Is Low at This

While the owners of coal floats here have expended considerable money in breaking the ice about the various crafts and preparing for a flood stage, it is now thought their work will be in vain. The ice since yesterday morning has been melting very fast, and about some of the floats is very thin. The effect of the high temperature has been very notice-

Rivermen have been preparing for a flood, not from any great fear that there will be one, but because they desire to be ready in the event of the unexpected happening. There is a great deal of snow and ice in the mountains, and under certain conditions this might thaw fast enough to cause a flood, but those certain conditions will not materialize during the present state of the weather. Two days of copious rain must be had before the river will get high enough to become alarming.

The river is very low at present and every day the shore ice is becoming more extensive. The marks at the Market street landing today registered six feet and stationary.

A breakup of the ice under present weather conditions is expected by Sunday and not later than Tuesday. All the coal floats are in excellent condition. and the stage at the wharfboat has been pulled inside, and the boat is at present only a few feet from the shore and out of danger.

A BRIGHT BOY.

He Knew Where His Head Would

The Sewickley Valley relates the following:

"An amusing incident happened last week in Miss Andrew's room, No. 8, of the Sewickley school. County Superintendent Hamilton was making one of his visits and while examining the class pointed to a map of Minnesota and asked, 'If you should stand with your feet directly on this spot, next to the Canadian line, where would your head be?' It is a puzzling question to most children of that age and they answer usually, 'My head would be in Canada,' but one bright little fellow thought he knew at once and said: 'Please sir, my head would be in the air.' It was correct, though not the answer expected."

Miss Andrews is the daughter of Doctor Andrews, of this city. The county superintendent pronounced the school among the best in the county.

Mr. Clarke has ever been a favorite with East Liverpool people, but last night he did better than usual. His impersonation of the penniless nobleman, who afterward regained favor at court, was perfection, while his anger when facing his enemies was perhaps the most powerful part of the play. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, FEB. 17.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns

As LONG as Pennsylvania and Delaware continue to ballot for United States senators so long will the country be provided with argument favoring the taking of matters of that sort from the hands of state legislators. Let the people select senators, and the work will be done more quickly and the senate, doubtless, improved.

WORKING FOR DEWEY.

Although Admiral Dewey is far away from the strife of American politics he counts his friends in this country by the million, and the great majority of them believe he should be elevated to the rank of admiral, holding that position as long as he lives. There have been few admirals in the history of this nation, but all have been men who stood head and shoulders above their fellow officers. That is why the public believes Dewey should have the highest honor the country can give any man of his profession.

SAVAGES.

The American friends of Aguinaldo and his forces were given a severe jolt when they learned that the Filipinos had fired on our flag from under a flag of truce. The incident may not in itself be of the greatest importance, but it serves to show the class of savages with which this nation has to deal. All the landation of Senator Hale will not do away with the fact that Aguinaldo is unscrupulous and his followers have learned well the lesson taught by their leader. There can be no real sympathy for the insurgent chief or his cause as long as he permits methods unknown to civilized warfare. Why should there, in any circumstance, be sympathy in the United States for an enemy of this country?

TRUSTS THAT SUCCEED.

When the object of a combination of capital is to earn big dividends on an amount much larger than that actually invested in the business it seeks to control there must be some doubt as to the outcome of the venture. Only the most careful management and the exercise of the keenest business sense can make success possible. From present indications the American Potteries' company Two Men will begin business well equipped with all requisites, but, however successful many trusts may be, it is but reasonable of Jethro, were sleigh riding last night, to suppose that when the history of a they turned a corner, and as a result, few combinations is written, perhaps the sleigh up set, throwing the occuwithin a year or two, the desire for inits course.

CARING FOR THE POOR.

The severe weather has brought out with added force the well known fact for $2 at that every community has its proportion of poor, and it has been shown with equal strength that charitable men and women are willing to aid these unfortunates in the hour of their extremity. While the calls for help have been materially decreased by the prosperity the country has been enjoying, there have been a sufficient number to give all who desired to aid their fellows the opportunity. Relief has been prompt, particularly in the large cities, and the showing is one of which the whole country can be proud, proving as it does that America, even in existing times, can think of something nearer home than wars and rumors of wars.

The News Review. PUT OIL IN THE FIRE

It Blazed Out, Burning Little Hugh Wallace.

HE RAN INTO THE STREET

Going as Far as Center Alley In Washington, and Was Taken Home by a Pedestrian-He Is Seriously Injured but May Live.

Hugh Wallace, aged 5 years, was badly burned this morning at 10 o'clock. His injuries are such that it is not known whether they will prove serious.

Shortly before that hour Mrs. Wallace went to a grocery at the foot of Washington street and left the young boy to look after a 3-months-old baby. While the mother was away the youngster secured an oil can and commenced to empty the contents in the stove. While doing this the flames ignited his clothing. The boy ran into the street and then to Center alley where he was caught by a man passing at the time. The individual took off his overcoat, and wrapping it around the child, smothered the flames. The child was carried to its home and a physician was summoned who dressed the injuries. He may live.

TROUBLE

Because of a Discharged Hotel Employe.

There was trouble in a downtown hotel last night when the proprietor discharged an employe and he refused to go without his clothing. The owner said the man owned him 50 cents and would not deliver the clothing until the amount was paid.

Officer Whan was called in and the colored gentleman stated the proprietor was 50 cents in debt to him. The officer told the men they would have to go through a process of law before he could help them. No arrests had been made or complaints filed up to a late hour this afternoon.

WOES OF A FARMER.

He Was Drunk and Had a Hard Time of It.

Last night a farmer, who was crippled and seemed to be laboring with an over dose of liquor, attracted a great deal of ttention in Sixth street.

When he reached the Diamond he slipped and fell in a pool of water and was unable to get to his feet until he was assisted. Later he fell a short distance farther up the street and again fell at the corner of Broadway. He was assisted to his feet on each occasion, and was assisted. Later he fell a short disfinally a man was found who put him in his wagon and started him for home.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, FEB. 17.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns

As LONG as Pennsylvania and Delaware continue to ballot for United States senators so long will the country be provided with argument favoring the taking of matters of that sort from the hands of state legislators. Let the people select senators, and the work will be done more quickly and the senate, doubtless, improved.

WORKING FOR DEWEY.

Although Admiral Dewey is far away from the strife of American politics he counts his friends in this country by the million, and the great majority of them believe he should be elevated to the rank of admiral, holding that position as long as he lives. There have been few admirals in the history of this nation, but all have been men who stood head and shoulders above their fellow officers. That is why the public believes Dewey should have the highest honor the country can give any man of his profession.

SAVAGES.

The American friends of Aguinaldo and his forces were given a severe jolt when they learned that the Filipinos had fired on our flag from under a flag of truce. The incident may not in itself be of the greatest importance, but it serves to show the class of savages with which this nation has to deal. All the landation of Senator Hale will not do away with the fact that Aguinaldo is unscrupulous and his followers have learned well the lesson taught by their leader. There can be no real sympathy for the insurgent chief or his cause as long as he permits methods unknown to civilized warfare. Why should there, in any circumstance, be sympathy in the United States for an enemy of this country?

TRUSTS THAT SUCCEED.

When the object of a combination of capital is to earn big dividends on an amount much larger than that actually invested in the business it seeks to control there must be some doubt as to the outcome of the venture. Only the most careful management and the exercise of the keenest business sense can make success possible. From present indications the American Potteries' company Two Men will begin business well equipped with all requisites, but, however successful few combinations is written, perhaps within a year or two, the desire for inits course.

CARING FOR THE POOR.

The severe weather has brought out with added force the well known fact for $2 at that every community has its proportion of poor, and it has been shown with equal strength that charitable men and women are willing to aid these unfortunates in the hour of their extremity. While the calls for help have been materially decreased by the prosperity the country has been enjoying, there have been a sufficient number to give all who desired to aid their fellows the opportunity. Relief has been prompt, particularly in the large cities, and the showing is one of which the whole country can be proud, proving as it does that America, even in existing times, can think of something nearer home than wars and rumors of wars.

It Blazed Out, Burning Little Hugh Wallace.

HE RAN INTO THE STREET

Going as Far as Center Alley In Washington, and Was Taken Home by a Pedestrian-He Is Seriously Injured but May Live.

Hugh Wallace, aged 5 years, was badly burned this morning at 10 o'clock. His injuries are such that it is not known whether they will prove serious.

Shortly before that hour Mrs. Wallace went to a grocery at the foot of Washington street and left the young boy to look after a 3-months-old baby. While the mother was away the youngster secured an oil can and commenced to empty the contents in the stove. While doing this the flames ignited his clothing. The boy ran into the street and then to Center alley where he was caught by a man passing at the time. The individual took off his overcoat, and wrapping it around the child, smothered the flames. The child was carried to its home and a physician was summoned who dressed the injuries. He may live.

TROUBLE

Because of a Discharged Hotel Employe.

There was trouble in a downtown hotel last night when the proprietor discharged an employe and he refused to go without his clothing. The owner said the man owned him 50 cents and would not deliver the clothing until the amount was paid.

Officer Whan was called in and the colored gentleman stated the proprietor was 50 cents in debt to him. The officer told the men they would have to go through a process of law before he could help them. No arrests had been made or complaints filed up to a late hour this

Last night a farmer, who was crippled and seemed to be laboring with an over dose of liquor, attracted a great deal of attention in Sixth street.

When he reached the Diamond he slipped and fell in a pool of water and was unable to get to his feet until he was unable to get to his feet until he was assisted. Later he fell a short distance farther up the street and again fell at the corner of Broadway. He was assisted to his feet on each occasion, and finally a man was found who put him in his wagon and started him for home.

WILSON FOUND GUILTY

Although He Had Forty-Three Witnesses on His side.

LISBON, Feb. 17. - [Special] - The trial of Homer O. Wilson, of New Garden, came to an end last night when the jury pronounced him guilty, the case having occupied part of two days. Wilson was charged with criminal slander, Sadie Sultner, of New Garden, being the object of his tongue. The testimony showed that Wilson had unsolicited gone to John Reamer, who was waiting on Miss Sultner, and had told him she was in a delicate condition and he had better quit going with her. The defendant relied largely for his defense them. in the fact the state must prove that Miss Sultner is a woman of good repute, and he brought 43 witnesses to prove that her reputation for virtue and chastity was bad. He did not succeed, as his witnesses did not testify as he expected. To swear away a woman's an easy matter, as some witnesses decided after the rigid cross examination rangements are afterwards made. at the hands of Prosecutor Brookes.

After a Long and Useful Life In This Place

the Same Cause.

Mrs. Emma Hulme, wife of the late her home in Snort street.

Deceased suffered from a stroke of paralysis eight years ago, but recovered in the open country to some extent, but her health. Last Wednesday at 5 o'clock she had another stroke of paralysis, and never recovered. She was conscious last evening until 5 o'clock, but at that time she lost consciousness, and died this morning at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Hulme was aged 61 years and had been a resident of the city for over 30 years. She was one of the best known and most highly respected residents of the city. She was a member of the First M. E. church, and had been an earnest Christian all her life. Every move that would tend to the advancement of Christianity received her hearty support.

She leaves seven children, five daughters and two sons, to mourn her loss: Mrs. O. H. Sebring, Mrs. W. H. Cochran, Mrs. Charles Knoblock, Mrs. William Tritt and Will and George of this city, and Mrs. Harry Calhoun, West Newton.

The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

Deceased had two strokes of paralysis about two years ago, and since that time has been failing in health. Last Sunday he suffered another stroke of paralysis and was only conscious for about an hour during his brief illness.

Deceased was aged 75 years and was born in Allegheny county, Pa. He moved across the river in Hancock county about 80 years ago, and resided there until some 10 years ago, when he came to this state and has been a resident of East Liverpool for over five years.

He was very well known here and was prominently identified with the business interests of the city, and in his earlier days was one of the most prominent farmers in this vicinity.

The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made and will not be made until word is received from the daughter who resides in Kansas.

DAMAGING TO CORNISH.

Dr. Potter Said In His Judgment the Young Man Was Not at All Sick.

New York, Feb. 17.—A large number of witnesses were put on the stand at the coroner's inquiry into the death of Mrs. Kate J. Adams, but the two around whom interest centered were Assistant District Attorney John F. Mc-Intyre and Dr. S. E. Potter. McIntyre's testimony, however, threw little light upon the mystery.

Dr. Potter, who had been called in to assist Dr. Hitchcock in attending Mrs. Adams, made the statement that he saw judgment Cornish was not sick at all. Dr. Potter distinctly remembered, he said, seeing two glasses on the table when he visited the Adams flat, one of which contained a sediment. The other contained no sediment that he could remember.

He testified also that instead of a heaping teaspoonful, as stated by Cornish and others, Mrs. Adams had received barely a half teaspoonful of the mixture, as evidenced by the amount of the mixture that remained in the bottle.

Fire at New Brighton.

NEW BRIGHTON, Pa., Feb. 17.-The opera house building was totally destroyed by fire. It was a three-story brick building. The first floor was occupied by the office and press room of The Daily News, H. L. Schwappe's drugstore, T. E. Marshall's drygoods store, T. W. Carey's shoestore and Emil Stucky's drugstore. The second floor contained The News composing rooms and armory of Company A, Fleur-de-Lis club rooms and storerooms. The opera house was on the third floor. The loss was $55,000 and insurance about $35,000.

UNION LABELS.

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympa thizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent work. ing hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

A large body of the enemy, presumably reconnoitering, was discovered on the right of Brigadier General King's position, near San Pedro Macati, Thursday morning. The entire brigade turned out and, after an exchange of volleys, the rebels retreated into the jungle and disappeared.

DAMAGING TO CORNISH.

Dr. Potter Said In His Judgment the Young Man Was Not at All Sick.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—A large number of witnesses were put on the stand at the coroner's inquiry into the death of Mrs. Kate J. Adams, but the two around whom interest centered were Assistant District Attorney John F. Mc-Intyre and Dr. S. E. Potter. McIntyre's testimony, however, threw little light upon the mystery.

Dr. Potter, who had been called in to assist Dr. Hitchcock in attending Mrs.
Adams, made the statement that he saw no evidences whatever of sickness in it dates from the days of the Druids, Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 337 at Wellsville. Cornish at that time, and that in his judgment Cornish was not sick at all. Dr. Potter distinctly remembered, he said, seeing two glasses on the table when he visited the Adams flat, one of which contained a sediment. The other contained no sediment that he could remember.

He testified also that instead of a heaping teaspoonful, as stated by Cornish and others, Mrs. Adams had received barely a half teaspoonful of the mixture, as evidenced by the amount of the mixture that remained in the Fire at New Brighton.

NEW BRIGHTON, Pa., Feb. 17.—The opera house building was totally destroyed by fire. It was a three-story brick building. The first floor was occupied by the office and press room of The Daily News, H. L. Schwappe's drugstore, T. E. Marshall's drygoods store, T. W. Carey's shoestore and Emil Stucky's drugstore. The second floor contained The News composing rooms and armory of Company A, Fleur-de-Lis club rooms and storerooms. The opera house was on the third floor. The loss was $55,000 and insurance about $35,000.

Big Fire In Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17.-Fire de. stroyed three six-story business build ings on Market street, below Thirteenth' and a number of smaller structures in the rear, entailing an aggregate loss little short of $400,000. The locality of the fire was only a few yards from Wanamaker's big department store, but the intersection of Thirteenth street fortunately prevented the flames from reaching that establishment, and the only damage it suffered was a trifling one from water.

Convention of Ohio Plumbers.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Feb. 17.—The state convention of plumbers elected the following officers: President, Louis Poplowski, Cleveland; vice president, Samuel Esswein, Columbus; secretary, treasurer, William Ellen, Cleveland. Positive It Was Murder.

ZANESVILLE, O., Feb. 17.—About one week ago Frank Shanley, after a night of carousal, was shot at a low resort. Persons in the place at the time all declared he had committed suicide. After rigid investigation the police were positive that the man was murdered, though whether deliberately or accidentally was uncertain.

Killed by Escaping Gas.

Bellefontaine, O., Feb. 17.-Judge Thomas Mittenberger was found dead in bed and his wife in an unconscious condition. Escaping gas from a broken fixture was the cause.

Confirmed by the Senate.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The senate confirmed among others these nominations: George W. Wilson of Ohio, commissioner of internal revenue; Spencer F. Eddy of Illinois, third secretary of the embassy at London; H. P. Dodge of Massachusetts, third secretary of the embassy at Berlin; Samuel Morrill of Massachusetts, third secretary of the embassy at Paris.

Haywood Seemed Brighter.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 17.-Mrs. B. J. Haywood telephoned to the treasury department from Sharon that the condition of the ex-state treasurer was unchanged. He seemed somewhat brighter and in better spirits and was perfectly rational, but there was no improvement in his general condition.

City Treasurer Fell Dead.

BRADFORD, Pa., Feb. 17.—City Treasurer Archibald McLean fell dead at his home. Mr. McLean was 63 years of age and leaves a widow and daughter. He was a third term candidate for treasurer at the coming election next Tuesday.

Will Continue the Hospital.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—Acting on advices received from Manila by cable the California Red Cross society decided to continue the maintenance of its hospital station in that city as long as the California volunteers remain in the Orient.

Generals Honorably Discharged.

Washington, Feb. 18.—The war department honorably discharged Major Generals Butler and Sumner and Brigadier Generals Kline, McKee, Wiley, Lincoln and Comba, all of the volunteer army.

Murderers Must Hang.

Susquehanna, Pa., Feb. 17.—The state supreme court refused a new trial to James Eagan and Cornelius Shaw of this place, who were convicted of the murder of A. Jackson Pepper of Rush township. Governor Stone will now fix the date for the execution.

Asked That a Family Be Let Go to

Manila, Feb. 17.—(11:50 a. m.)—Ex-Consul of the United States O. F. Williams is in receipt of an application from a member of the insurgent congress at can lines for a family of 12 persons who are desirous of taking refuge in Manila. This is regarded as significant, as showing that the most intelligent rebels realize that their families are safe only within American territory.

With the exception of a few shots fired into a small body of rebels, who were attempting to a destroy a railroad bridge near Caloocan, all has been quiet along the line.

Last night the heat affected the men in the open country to some extent, but otherwise the health of the troops shows a marked improvement since the beginning of hostilities.

Troops K and I of the Fourth cavalry encountered the enemy's scouts Wednesday near Paranaque and exchanged a few volleys with them. During the fighting Trooper Wiltner of K troop was wounded in the right arm.

The cruiser Buffalo fired four small shells at a part of the enemy which the cruiser's searchlight showed to be mounting a battery near Paranaque. The enemy made no reply and withdrew their guns to Paranaque.

The steamers Brutus and Romulus arrived from Iloilo, but brought no later news except that the Americans were clearing vessels, thence assuming control of the port. The rebels had all the records burned before vacating the

It was rumored that the Filipinos in the interior were in sore straits and are now quarreling among themselves, but it was impossible to confirm these reports, as all communication was cut off.

A large body of the enemy, presumably reconnoitering, was discovered on the right of Brigadier General King's position, near San Pedro Macati, Thursday morning. The entire brigade turned out and, after an exchange of volleys, the rebels retreated into the jungle and disappeared.

The same announcement says that Mr. Kipling is the nephew of the president of the academy, Sir Edward J. Poynter. This reminds us of a conversation we had with Dr. William M. Millburn, who never forgets what he is sure will interest his friends. On our asking him if he had met the Rev. Frederick Macdonald, one of the secretaries of the Wesleyan Missionary society, and a fraternal delegate to our general conference in 1880, he said: "Yes, I know him well, and the last time I saw him I asked him about his father, the Rev. George Brown Macdonald, and his family. George Brown Macdonald was a Wesleyan preacher and his father before him.

The same announcement says that Mr. Kipling is the nephew of the president of the academy, Sir Edward J. Poynter. This reminds us of a conversation we had with Dr. William M. Millburn, who never forgets what he is sure will interest his friends. On our asking him if he had met the Rev. Frederick Macdonald, one of the secretaries of the Wesleyan Missionary society, and a fraternal delegate to our general conference in 1880, he said: "Yes, I know him well, and the last time I saw him I asked him about his father, the Rev. George Brown Macdonald, and his family. George Brown Macdonald was a Wesleyan preacher and his father before him.

"Mr. Macdonald's answer was: 'My only brother died in New York. My oldest sister became the wife of Sir Edward Burne-Jones, the artist; my second sister became the wife of Mr. now Sir Edward-Poynter, director of the National gallery, and, since the death of Sir John Millais, president of the Royal academy. WAIT FOR NEXT WEEK

Is the Word Being Passed Around at Present.

Affairs In New York, the Story Goes, Are Rapidly Being Arranged-No Trouble Being Experienced In Placing Stock, Work Here Closing Up.

The word is being passed around among manufacturers in this city that next week will bring the information they have so long sought concerning the future of the American Potteries company and, what is equally of importance to them, the time when they will receive payment for their plants.

From the most reliable source the NEWS REVIEW learns that the trouble concerning stock subscriptions has been largely imaginary, and payment by the capitalists who have become interested will be made Feb. 21, next Tuesday. Then will follow arrangements for the settlement, and it is believed Feb 25 will be the date when it will be made. The statement is made positively that this is the arrangement, and unless some hitch occurs it will be earried out. The gentleman who is the News Review's informant cannot understand what can interfere to cause delay unless the whole thing is to fall through.

The work of the expert accountants at the Thompson House goes steadily on although they have not now a large force of assistants. While Mr. Kernan will give out nothing for publication it is learned the work is drawing to a

LOCAL BREVITIES

Thomas Forster was an Allegheny visitor today.

Mr. Bergman, of Salem, has taken a position in the city, and will remain here.

Thomas Whalen, of Salineville, is in the city the guest of William Nath, Second street.

George Reed, of Gardendale, has commenced the erection of an addition to his residence.

The electric light at the corner of Fifth and Market streets was out last night for several hours.

Linemen for the telephone company are today stringing wires and making !! connections in the city.

A number of sleighing parties left the city last evening, and returned at various hours after midnight.

The gates at the Broadway crossing are still broken and are useless. It is though they will be repaired before the end of another week.

Jason H. Brookes, who has been in Lisbon during the week attending court. will return to the city tomorrow. There will be no court next week.

Edward Lee, of this city, yesterday purchased a fast driving horse from parties in Calcutta. The animal will be brought to the city next week.

Word received from Akron states that Joseph Barker is very seriously ill. The pottery at that place is running day and night that they may keep up with their orders.

Mayor Bough was called to West Point this morning on account of the serious illness of his father, at his home at that place. He will return to the city, it is expected, tomorrow.

William Trover, of Gardendale, suffered a severe attack of chills yesterd iv afternoon. He was a member of Company E, and has not been entirely well since his return from Cuba.

G. D. Herger, of Beaver, Pa., and Wesley Hilfinger, Rochester, Pa., were in the city today in attendance at the funeral of Elwood Pusey. The gentlemen are cousins of the deceased.

The funeral of the late Elwood Pusey took place this afternoon from his late residence in Fourth street. A large number of persons were in attendance. Interment was made at Riverview.

The epidemic of grip which held the city so long in its grasp is loosening its hold, but physicians do not think it will disappear for months to come. There are at present many cases in town, but the number is steadily decreasing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams and daughter, of Walnut street, left this morning for Salineville where they this afternoon attended the funeral of Alice Hannemus who died Wednesday night. They will return to the city this even-

The Thompson Pottery company during the week shipped a car of ware to Sandusky, while the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company sent one to Charleston, W. Va. Carload shipments from the various potteries are increasing rap-

A well-known young woman slipped and fell as she crossed Fourth and Washington streets last night, and half a dozen loungers at the postoffice hastened to her assistance. She was not badly hurt, but two of them took her home.

The rush for houses has already commenced, and one agent who handles a considerable amount of property said today that he had more applications than he could handle. In his opinion a great many people will move before the first !! of May.

Early in the week Agent Thomas received an order which prevented the sending of freight to the east. Now that the blockade has been raised an order is expected ordering the forwarding of eastern freight, shipments to begin Monday.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Thomas Forster was an Allegheny visitor today.

Mr. Bergman, of Salem, has taken a position in the city, and will remain here

Thomas Whalen, of Salineville, is in the city the guest of William Nath, Second street.

George Reed, of Gardendale, has commenced the erection of an addition to his residence.

The electric light at the corner of Fifth and Market streets was out last night for several hours.

Linemen for the telephone company are today stringing wires and making connections in the city.

A number of sleighing parties left the city last evening, and returned at various hours after midnight.

The gates at the Broadway crossing are still broken and are useless. It is though they will be repaired before the end of another week.

Jason H. Brookes, who has been in Lisbon during the week attending court, will return to the city tomorrow. There will be no court next week.

Edward Lee, of this city, vesterday purchased a fast driving horse from parties in Calcutta. The animal will be brought to the city next week.

Werd received from Akron states that Joseph Barker is very seriously ill. The pottery at that place is running day and night that they may keep up with their orders.

Mayor Bough was called to West Point this morning on account of the serious illness of his father, at his home at that place. He will return to the

william Trover, of Gardendale, suffered a severe attack of chills yesterd wafternoon. He was a member of Company E, and has not been entirely well since his return from Cuba.

The funeral of the late Elwood Pusey took place this afternoon from his late residence in Fourth street. A large number of persons were in attendance. Interment was made at Riverview.

The epidemic of grip which held the city so long in its grasp is loosening its hold, but physicians do not think it will disappear for months to come. There are at present many cases in town, but the number is steadily decreasing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams and daughter, of Walnut street, left this morning for Salineville where they this afternoon attended the funeral of Alice Hannemus who died Wednesday night. They will return to the city this evening.

The Thompson Pottery company during the week shipped a car of ware to Sandusky, while the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company sent one to Charleston, W. Va. Carload shipments from the various potteries are increasing rapidly.

A well-known young woman slipped and fell as she crossed Fourth and Washington streets last night, and half a dozen loungers at the postoffice hastened to her assistance. She was not badly hurt, but two of them took her home.

The rush for houses has already commenced, and one agent who handles a considerable amount of property said today that he had more applications than he could handle. In his opinion a great many people will move before the first of May.

Early in the week Agent Thomas received an order which prevented the sending of freight to the east. Now that the blockade has been raised an order is expected ordering the forwarding of eastern freight, shipments to begin Monday.

You all know that clothing manufacturers employ traveling salesmen. That these salesmen carry as samples, one of each kind of suit or overcoat that their respective firms make. You probably also know that these samples are the model garments, the Best the House Can Produce. No matter how cheap the goods or how fine, the making is the best, superior to most custom work.

For instance, a house employing a salesman must make each season six suits or six overcoats of each kind, one for each salesman. This explanation is probably necessary to make you properly appreciate a great treat in store for you. The BiGGEST HIT of our experience.

M'KINLEY RECEIVED.

Boston People Met Him at Algonquin Club Today.

VISITED G. A. R. MEN.

Made a Speech at a Banquet Last Night Said Americans Had No Imperial Design Expected a Great Future For the Inhabitants of Philippines.

Boston, Feb. 17.-President McKinley today visited the G. A. R. encampment, dined at the Algonquin club and held a reception there. He will drive from the clubhouse to the South Union station and leave Boston about 5:10

The president was the guest of the Home Market club at a banquet in his honor at Mechanics hall last night Messrs: Long, Alger, Bliss, Gage and Smith of his cabinet accompanied him, together with Congressman Grosvenor of Onio. The arrival of the presidential train at the south terminal station was the occasion of a great outburst of enthusiasm from the thousands of citizens who lined the streets on the line of the procession from the station to the hotel. The remainder of the day, after the arrival at the hotel was spent in quietude by the president until about 4:15, when he was escorted to Mechan ics hall, to participate in the reception and banquet of the Home Market club. President McKinley in his speech at the banquet said in part:

We hear no complaint of the relation created by the war between this government and the islands of Cuba and Porto Rico. There are some, however, who regard the Philippines as in a different relation: but, whatever variety of views there may be on this phase of the question, there is universal agreement that the Philippines shall not be turned back to Spain. No true American consents to that.

There was but one alternative and that was either Spain or the United States in the Phil ippines. The other suggestions-first that they should be tossed into the arena of contention for the strife of nations; or, second, be left to the anarchy and chaos of no protector ate at all, were too shameful to be considered. The treaty gave them to the United States. Could we have required less and done ou duty? Could we, after freeing the Filipino from the domination of Spain, have left them without government and without power to protect life and property or to perform the international obligations essential to an independent state? Could we have left them in a state of anarchy and justified ourselves in our own consciences or before the tribunal of mankind? Could we have done that in the sight of God and man?

Our concern was not for territory or trade or empire, but for the people whose interests and destiny, without our willing it, had been put in our hands. It was with this feeling that from the first day to the last not one word or line went from the executive in Washington to our military and naval commanders at Manila, or to bir peace commissioners a Paris, that did not put as the sole purpose to be kept in mind first, after the success of our arms and the maintenance of our own honor. the welfare and happiness and the rights of the inhabitants of the Philippine islands. Did we need their consent to perform a great act for humanity? We had it in every aspiration of their minds, in every hope of their hearts

Was it necessary to ask their consent to capture Manila, the capital of their islands? Did we ask their consent to liberate them from Spanish sovereignty or to enter Manila bay and destroy the Spanish sea power there? We did not ask these; we were obeying a higher moral obligation which rested on us and which did not require anybody's consent. We were doing our duty by them with the consent of our own consciences and with the approval of civilization. Every present obligation has been met and fulfilled in the expulsion of spanish sovereignty from their islands and while the war that destroyed it was in progress we could not ask their views. Nor can we now ask their consent. It is not a good time for the liberator to submit important questions concerning liberty and government to the liberated while they are engaged in shooting down their rescuers We have now ended the war with Spain The treaty has been ratified by more than two thirds of the senate of the United States and by the judgment of nine-tenths of its people. The future of the Philippine islands is now in the hands of the American people. The whole subject is now with congress and congress is the voice, the conscience and the judg ment of the American people. Upon their judgment and conscience can we not rely? I believe in them, I trust them. I know of no better or safer human tribunal than the people. Until congress shall direct otherwise, it will be the duty of the executive to possess and hold the Philippines, giving to the people thereof peace and order and beneficient government, affording them every opportunity to prosecute their lawful pursuits, encouraging them in thrift and industry, making them feel and know that we are their friends, not their enemies, that their good is our aim. that their welfare is our welfare, but that neither their aspirations nor ours can be realized until our authority is acknowledged and un-

That the inhabitants of the Philippines will be benefited by this republic is my unshaken belief; that they will have a kindlier govern ment under our guidance and that they will be aided in every possible way to be self respecting and self-governing people is as true as that the American people love liberty and have an abiding faith in their own govern ment and in their own institutions.

No imperial designs lurk in the American mind. They are alien to American sentiment. thought and purpose. Our priceless principles undergo no change under a tropical sun. If we can benefit these remote peoples, who will object? If in the years of the future they are established in government under law and liberty, who will regret our perils and sacri fices? Who will not rejoice in our heroism and humanity? around Manila, where every red drop, whether fever."

misguided Filipino, is anguish to my heart; but by the broad range of future years, when that group of islands under the impulse of the year just past, shall have become the gems and giories of those tropical seas, a land of plenty and of increasing possibilities, a people redeemed from savage indolence and habits devoted to the arts of peace, in touch with the commerce and trade of all nations, enjoying the blessings of freedom, of civil and religious liberty, of education and of homes and whose children and children's children shall for ages hence bless the American republic because it emancipated and redeemed their fatherland and set them in the pathway of the world's best civilization.

PRESIDENT FAURE DEAD.

Chief Executive of France Expired From an Attack of Apoplexy-Sketch of His Career.

Paris, Feb. 17 .- M. Felix Faure, president of the republic of France. died after an illness of about three hours of apoplexy.

Francois Felix Faure, sixth president the third republic of France, was born Jan. 20, 1841, in Paris, and was the son f a cabinetmaker. He was educated at a private commercial school and was then sent to England for two years to learn the language and become acquainted with the English nethods of business. On his return to rance he went to Amboise and masered the business of a currier. mite young he married the daughter of M. Belluot, an attorney at Amboise Almost immediately afterward he settled at Havre as a commission merchant and soon became a leading shipowner.

He became president of the Havre chamber of commerce and duting the Franco-Prussian war held the other of deputy mayor of the city.

In these troublous times he was also captain of the Mobiles of the Seine Inferi euro, in which capacity he took part in the skirmishes near Havre, being recommended by Admiral Mouchey for the Legion of Honor,

During the war Gambetta sent him to England to buy arms for the Franco Ti reurs and Mobiles. He was deprived of his deputy mayoralty by the Broglie cabinet of 1874, but he compensated himself for the loss of office by devoting increased attention to provident, educational and charitable institutions.

In August, 1881, he offered himself as a Republican candidate for parliament in the Third district of Havre and was elected. He was appointed under secretary of state for the colonies in the Gambetta administration, formed in November of that year, and held the same office in the ministries of M. Jules Ferry (1883), M. Brisson (1885) and M. Tirard (1887). In May, 1891, he became minister of ma-rine in M. Dupuy's cabinet and was appointed vice president of the chamber of deputies, a position to which he was several times elected. On the retirement of M. Casimir-Perier, who resigned the presidency, Jan. 16, 18.5, he was chosen president by 430 votes as against 361 given to Henri Brisson, the election taking place Jan 17, 1895.

WARFIELD NOT TO BLAME.

A Trustee of Lafayette Declared Stephen's Charges False.

Easton, Pa., Feb. 17.—Prol. E. B. Owen of Lafayette was the chief witness in the trial of Prof. George H. Stephens, charged with burning Pardee hall. Owen and Stephens had been close friends. He testified that Stephens, after his arrest, confessed to him that he had burned the hall because o grudge against President Warfield. The defense contended that the only confesion was read to Detective Johnson un der an agreement that leniency be e. tended to the prisoner. This was de nied by some witnesses.

E. J. Fox, a trustee of Lafa etta co lege, testified that the parts o. the confession which referred to Stephen having committed the crimes he spok of he believed to be true. Miles Said He Would Continue to Protect Them.

ALGER WAS HISSED IN BOSTON.

During the Parade There Were Yells of Derision and Hisses-As His Carriage Passed One Place, There Were Cheers For General Miles.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 17.—A local paper telegraphed General Miles for a reply to the address of Dr. P. S. Conner at the testimonial banquet in this city Tuesday night. The commanding general replied without mentioning the name of Dr. Conner or any other member of the war investigating commission or even referring to the speech of Dr. Conner or any of the charges about which inquiry had been made of him. His telegram reads:

"Washington, Feb. 16. "In 36 years' continuous service I am unconscious of having neglected or exceeded my duty to superiors in com mand, to the brave men under my command or to my country I shall con tinue to do what I believe to be for the best interests of our country and, I hope, protect the health, life and honor of those who risk all for their country and its people.

HISSES FOR ALGER.

Some of the Crowd In Boston Insulted the Secretary-Cheered General Miles' Name.

Boston, Feb. 17.—Several times dur ing the parade and amid the genera. cheering, for the president on his ar rival, yells of derision and hisses were heard for Secretary of War Alger. This was particularly noticeable at the corner of Park and Beacon streets.

"What's the matter with Long?" fre quently was the cry.

"What's the matter with Alger?" was shouted as the procession passed along summer street. "Yah, yah, yah, beef! beef!" jeered

the crowd. It took Mr. Alger some time to grasp the situation. At length, however, he caught the drift of the shouting and his gracious smiles stiffened into a look of cold impassiveness.

At the corner of Beacon and Charles streets a group of young militiamen establ shed themselves with the deliberate intention of giving Secretary of War Alger a snub when he passed, as was apparent from their conversation, and when Secretary Alger's carriage was abreast of them they shouted in unison 'three cheers for General Miles.'

At several points attempts were made to hiss as Secretary Alger passed, but cheers for President McKinley drowned

BEEF INQUIRY COURT.

Members Gathered In Washington and Reported-They Will Formally Meet Today.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The members of the Miles court of inquiry held an informal conference, and at its conclusion Colonel Davis, the recorder, announced that the formal meeting of the court would be deferred until today. It had not been determined, Colonel Davis said, who would be the first witness. As recorder Colonel Davis has been getting together a list of witnesses who will be likely to shed light on the character of the food furnished.

As General Miles is specifically named in the order convening the court as authority for the charges it is rather expected that his testimony will be taken first as a basis for the subsequent inquiry. The court has not been informed thus far that General Miles will be represented by counsel, though this is his right. It was stated that anyone whose course of action was involved in anyway had the right to be represented by counsel.

This, it was stated, would permit beef concerns as well as any other firms or individuals directly involved in the inquiry to be represented by counsel if they saw fit. There was no notice of counsel, however, and no legal representatives were present.

Ex-Governor Woodbury of Vermont, one of the members of the war investigating commission, called while the members of the court were in informal conference and had a long private taik with Colonel Davis.

MISSING SOLDIERS TURNED UP.

Good News Sent by General Otis-More Wounded Reported.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 .- The war department received the following: Adjutant General, Washington:

"MANILA, Feb. 16. "Harvey H. Harris, Company B, Twentieth Kansas, flesh wound left leg. doing well. John Sorenson, First Montana, reported probably dead, is alive, but both eyes shot away, condition fair. Cable of 7th, reporting William J.

Hayes, First wasnington, wounded slightly, is error. Oval F. Gibson, Company E, First Washington, reported missing, was found with sprained leg. Corporal Hayes, First Montana, cabled on oth as missing, is with company.

Senor Montero Rios Resigned.

MADRID, Feb. 17.-Senor Montero Rios, who was president of the Spanish peace commission, resigned the presidency of the senate owing to the popular outery against his defense of the commission.

BLOCKED PAYING SPAIN.

House Member Succeeded In Having the $20,000,000 Appropriation Stricken From Sundry Civil Bill.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 .- During the consideration of the sundry civil bill, in the house, the paragraph carrying the appropriation of $20,000,000 for pay ment to Spain under the terms of the peace treaty was stricken out upon a point of order made by Mr. Wheeler, a Kentucky Democrat, who declared that he opposed the appropriation on principle, and would resort to any technicality to defeat it. The point of order was debated for hours, its determination hinging upon the question of whether the ratification of the treaty by the senate and its signing by the president vitalized it without the action of the Spanish cortes. Warrant of law was necessary to make the appropriation in

Mr. Hopkins (Rep., Ills.), who was in the chair, sustained the point of or der against it, and upon an appeal, his decision was sustained-149 to 56. Mr. Cannon then attempted to have the ap propriation inserted by unanimous consent, but Mr. Wneeler again objected. A strong intimation was given by Mr. Cannon that a way would be found within the rules to make the appropriation before the adjournment of congress. He referred undoubtedly to the proba bility that the appropriation would be placed on the bill by the senate.

After the sundry civil bill had been completed and reported to the house Mr. Hepburn (la.), the champion of the Nicaragua canal bill, moved to recommit it with instructions to report it back with the canal bill incorporated in it. This was an unexpected move, as it was generally understood that Mr. Hepburn had abandoned all hope after his defeat, Wednesday. But he believed that his motion would have additional strength in the house, where members could be put upon record. The motion was promptly declared out of order by the speaker, whereupon Mr. Hepburn appealed, and Mr. Payne (N. Y.) moved to lay the appeal on the table. Upon the latter motion the vote was taken and the result was 97 ayes to 67 nays. As no quorum was developed on the vote, owing to the lateness of the hour. they managed to carry an adjournment until today.

ARMY BILL REPORTED.

Naval Personnel Bill Taken Up and Read In the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17 .- The army reorganization bill was reported to the senate and Mr. Hawley (Conn.), chairman of the military affairs committee, gave notice that he would move to proceed to its consideration at the earliest possible time. The naval personnel bill was taken up and read, but no effort made to proceed further with its consideration. The military academy appropriation bill was passed. The postoffice appropriation bill was under consideration during the greater part of the afternoon, but was not disposed of finally. A spirited debate occurred over the amendment of the senate committee providing for an appropriation to secure fast mail service between New York and Washington and Atlanta and New Orleans. The amendment was retained in the

To Make Corbin a Major General.

Washington, Feb. 17 .- The military affairs committee reported favorably the senate bill to make Adjutant General H. C. Corbin, a major general The house bill for the same purpose was reported already and this action was taken to facilitate action upon it in the house. It was not the intention of Chairman Hull to ask unanimous con sent for the consideration of this bill, but to move its passage under suspension of the rules during the last six days of the session.

T. e Mrs. treorge Case.

CANTON, O., Feb. 17.-A demurrer was filed to the plea in abatement to the indictment against Mrs. Anna E. George. Prosecutor Pomerene interposed the demurrer to various grounds in the plea because he claimed they were insufficient in substance to abate the indictment. He said that in case the demurrer to the plea in abatement was overruled he would probably file a reply to portions of the plea, as there were several questions which would properly be raised that way.

Ballot For United States Senator.

HARRISBURG, Feb. 17 .- The senatorial ballot showed 33 legislators paired or not voting. Senator Quay was again 13 votes short of the number necessary to re elect. The vote follows: Quay, 97; Jenks, 74; Daizell, 15; Stone, 5; Stewart, 6; Irvin, 6; Huff, 5; Tubbs, 2; Markle, 1; Widener, 2; Riter, 2; Rice, 2; Grow, 1. Total, 218. Necessary to a choice, 110. Absent and paired, 33. No choice.

CORNERSTONE LAID.

Impressive Ceremonies at the State Capitol.

MONNETT ATTACKED THE TRUSTS.

The Attorney-General Delivered Some Blows In His Speech-Members of the Legislature Held Their Reunion and Had a Banquet.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 17 .- The city was filled with strangers there being a double attraction of general public interest-the laying of the cornerstone of the new $400,000 addition to the statehouse being of first importance and the reunion of the members of the seventythird general assembly the secondary consideration. The reunion took the place of the adjourned session of the egislature, since the adoption of the biennial session idea. The cornerstone exercises took place in the afternoon, when Governor Bushnell, after an invocation by Rev. H. H. Barbour, laid the stone. The vast assemblage then adjourned to the board of trade auditorium, where the program was concluded. Addresses were made by Chief Justice J. P. Bradbury of the Ohio supreme court, Attorney General F. S. Monnett, Hon. Charles D. Wightman, Hon. A. J, Haslett and

Hon. William G. Deshler. The feature of the legislative reunion was a banquet at the Great Southern hotel last night. There were over 200 persons present at the banquet. An elaborate form of entertainment was part: "In our constitution of 1851 we made a departure from the constitution of 1802 by delegating the power, with certain constitutional limitations, to the legislature to enact general laws creating corporations. This was an inpovation that, 50 years of experience in this add other states, is yet an experiment. There are Titanic tasks to be performed for which the human arm is not long enough and man's life not enduring enough. His mind is not powerful enough to carry on the great work of a continental railroad and other great enterprises, and therefore we felt justified in creating these fictitious entities called corporations. "If they have governmental functions granted to them by a state, they must exercise them for the public and the general welfare of the states the same as the sovereign itself would use them.

"For many purposes the income of these corporations is but another name for taxation, to the extent that they represent the government, their demeanor must be as a government. They can no moae discriminate against one cititizen as against another than the state could impose its taxes upon one to the exemption of another.

"If they exercise the right of eminent domain, they must also subject themselves to the principles of a common carrier. If they occupy our streets they must be amenable to the rules and regulations of the municipality where:n

they exist. "If they run pipe lines across private property, all parties desiring to avail themselves of this public carrier must be afforded equal opportunities, or, in a word to make myself understood; this judiciary building that we erect today, in the near future will be called upon to dispense justice, to right the wrongs, to reinstate the liberties of the individual citizen as against the usurped powers and rights of certain monopolies.

"We have loaned to them some of the functions of the government; we have given them the right to take private property for public purposes; we have permitted them to usurp our franchises in the highways, in the rivers and over the bridges; we have permitted them, for public purposes, to string wires across the country. The beneficent results from this modern system of de? veloping our country and embellishing our cities has been, on every hand, applanded, and yet, on the other hand, many of the guardians of this sacred trust, these agents of the governmental functions bequeathed to them, have too often forgotten that these potent functions of government so loaned to them, if used, must be justly and fairly and legally exercised.

"Therefore, my countrymen, on this memorable occasion along with our rejoicing in the glorious victories abroad let us also turn our attentions to the serious problems that affect our homes, affect our property and affect our liberties, to determine in a legal, constitutional and peaceful way the destiny of the citizen at home. "If you love your country, if you love the oppressed, if you are patriotic, you will not submit to aggressions and the subverting of the rights of the common man, either by bribeav for position, or for the emoluments of office, but whenever and wherever you see tyranny in any form, oppression under anv guise, the using of the forms of government to unlawfully build up private estates at the expense of the common welfare, be men and rise above the baneful influences that would work your own destruction."

EX-PRISONERS OF WAR

Have a Committee at Work on Pension Bills.

TWO DOLLARS A DAY IS FAVORED

For the Men Who Were Confined In Rebel Strongholds During the Rebellion. A Matter of Interest to a Number of Liverpool Veterans.

The veteran soldiers of East Liverpool who were confined in southern prisons during the Rebellion will be interested in knowing that a committee of their state organization is at work in Columbus. The committee consists of D. S. Wilder, Columbus; I. F. Mack, Sandusky; Thomas Carpenter, New Albany. Their duty is to examine pension bills for ex-prisoners, and recommend such as the committee think best meets the wants of the organization.

The committee will have several bills before it, but it is almost without question that what is known as the Dingler bill will be indorsed. This bill provides that all soldiers of the war of the re-bellion who were in Confederate prisons for 30 days or more shall receive $2 a day for each day of imprisonment over the 30 days, and that payment shall end their claims upon the government so far their claims upon the government so far as the payment for time in the prisons shall be concerned. The bill does not in the remotest interfere with any claim the soldier may have for wounds or disability contracted at other times while in the army. It only provides for the prison experience.

THE RIGHT CHARITY.

Ladies Looked After Children Whose Parents Are III.

Yesterday afternoon several well known ladies of the city went to a shantyboat located between Market and Broadway, and found the father and mother of a number of children confined to their beds by illness. They were unable to provide for the children, and two of the younger ones were unable to go out on account of not having sufficient clothing. The women went away, but soon returned with clothing and medicine and other articles which were needed by the family. They cared for those who were sick as much as possible, and when they left one of the ladies took two children with her and will keep them at her home until the father has recovered sufficiently to provide for the family.

The family came to this city from Racine, Wis., several months ago, and since their arrival have had a hard time to obtain the necessaries of life. The township trustees have assisted them whenever they applied, but their calls at the office have not been frequent of

NO ICE FAMINE.

All the Ice Now Being Cut at the River Is Being Stored.

Much of the ice which is being cut from the river is being stored about the oity and will be retailed during the warm weather. The ice is unusually clear and the majority of it is from eight to 12 inches thick. Many teams were used in this work yesterday, and a number of people predicted that no matter how warm the weather will be there will be no ice famine.

BROKE HIS ARM.

George McCully Suffered a Serious Acci-

While walking near Burlingame's store on Calcutta road last night, George McCally, a well known potter employed at the plant of Knowles, Taylor & Knowles, fell and broke his arm near the shoulder.

He was taken to his home on Calcutta road, and Doctor Andrews reduced the fracture. It is a bad one, and weeks will elapse before Mr. McCully can return to work.

BOSTON DEPARTMENT

Scorched, Wet, Smoked, but Not Consumed,

Thanks to the efficiency of our fire department. It was a bad fire, but it might have been worse. It was so controlled as to limit its operations to the ceiling of the room. The damage to the stock is from the water and smoke. The departments that suffered most were the

AND THE SILK

The water damage extends to several other departments, and the smoke damage to all of the departments, more or less. We don't believe in doing things by halves, and so on we will offer the entire stock in the 25 different departments, amounting in all to $32,981.08, (as per inventory taken February 1st) at reductions varying according to the amount of damage. Some lines will be rushed out at 90 per cent reduction, some at 75 per cent reduction, some at 50 per cent reduction, some at 331 per cent reduction, others at 25 per cent reduction, and a small per centage of the very best staple goods---worth 100 cents on the dollar---at reductions of 15 per cent and 10 per cent. This sale, we verily believe will eclipse any Dry Goods Sale ever inaugurated and carried on in East Liverpool, not only in the percentage of reduction in prices, but also in the variety and quality of goods offered. In addition to the departments already named, we mention the following, each of which will contribute its quota of Bargains to the sale Saturday morning.

Dress Goods, Linings, Trimmings, Laces, Embroideries, Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Umbrellas, Hosiery, Underwear, Corsets, Flannels, Linens, White Goods, Wash Goods, Domestics, Lace Curtains, Draperies, Table and Floor Oil Cloths, Trunks, Blankets and Comforts.

In some of these departments the damage is very light, but nevertheless everything will go at a Reduction, damage or no damage.

A WORD ABOUT THE SALE SATURDAY.

While you can buy any article in the store at a reduced price, any day while this sale lasts, there will be, as the sale progresses, certain days for the sale of certain articles. A stock the size of this cannot be sold at retail in a day or two, so we have decided to run it out in sections, announcing each evening in the papers what will be sold the following day. So keep your eye on our announcements each evening. is big money in this for you.

NOT MUCH DANGER NOW

Rivermen Do Not Fear a Big Flood.

THE ICE IS MELTING RAPIDLY

All Local Floats Are In Condition to Meet a Rush of Water, but It Is Not Expected--The Stream Is Low at This

While the owners of coal floats here have expended considerable money in breaking the ice about the various crafts and preparing for a flood stage, it is now thought their work will be in vain. The ice since yesterday morning has been melting very fast, and about some of the fleats is very thin. The effect of the another. high temperature has been very notice-

Rivermen have been preparing for a flood, not from any great fear that there will be one, but because they desire to be ready in the event of the unexpected happening. There is a great deal of snow and ice in the mountains, and under certain conditions this might thaw fast enough to cause a flood, but those certain conditions will not materialize during the present state of the weather. Two days of copious rain must be had before the river will get high enough to become alarming.

The river is very low at present and every day the shore ice is becoming more extensive. The marks at the Market street landing today registered six feet and stationary.

A breakup of the ice under present weather conditions is expected by Sunday and not later than Tuesday. All the coal floats are in excellent condition. and the stage at the wharfboat has been pulled inside, and the boat is at present only a few feet from the shore and out of danger.

A BRIGHT BOY.

He Knew Where His Head Would

The Sewickley Valley relates the following:

"An amusing incident happened last week in Miss Andrew's room, No. 8, of the Sewickley school. County Superintendent Hamilton was making one of his visits and while examining the class pointed to a map of Minnesota and asked, 'If you should stand with your feet directly on this spot, next to the Canadian line, where would your head be?' It is a puzzling question to most children of that age and they answer 4,400 miles in length between London usually, 'My head would be in Canada,' and Bombay for the transportation of head would be in the air.' It was correct, though not the answer expected."

Miss Andrews is the daughter of Docfor Andrews, of this city. The county superintendent pronounced the school among the best in the county.

AN EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE.

Creston Clarke Pleased a Large Audience Last Night.

Creston Clarke and one of the best companies ever seen in the city last evening delighted a splendid audience at the Grand Opera House, the play being "The Ragged Cavalier."

Mr. Clarke has ever been a favorite with East Liverpool people, but last night he did better than usual. His impersonation of the penniless nobleman, who afterward regained favor at court, was perfection, while his anger when facing his enemies was perhaps the most powerful part of the play. Miss Adelaide Prince was the same sweet, loving character that East Liverpool audiences have seen and appreciated at other times.

FILIPINO STRONGHOLDS.

Caloocan, the town into which the rebels were driven, is a place of 10,000 inhabitants, seven miles north from the walled city of Manila. It connects with Manila by railroad and with Novaliches. Mariquina and Sampaloc by highroads. It is near the Malabon river and 21/2 miles inland from the bay.

Santa Mesa, where the first shot was fired, is north-northeast of Manila about six miles. It is a village of several thousand inhabitants and practically a suburb of Manila. I has several big churches and is near the cemetery for infidels, where the Chinese are buried.

Malabon, over which Dewey's ships fired at the rebels who attacked from the north, is on the Malabon river, eight miles north of Manila. The town is situated a half mile inland from the bay, and the river is deep enough to admit of light draft gunboats entering a short distance to shell the interior country, as was done.

Paco, the scene of the skirmish with the rebels, is three miles southeast of the walled city, being inland from the bay one mile. To shell it the American warships have only to fire over the shore village of Ermita.

The creese, the native name for the knife which is the sole armament of many of Aguinaldo's warriors, is a weapon nearly two feet long, with a sharp, curved blade, which widens toward the middle. A single blow generally kills the victim.

The Yagorates, who used bows and arrows in attacking the Americans, are one of the wilder tribes of Luzon island. They refuse to wear clothes, live in the mountains of the island, and all efforts to civilize them have failed. They are light and agile, and attempts have been made to train them as servants, but they run off to their mountain homes at the first opportunity. Fighting and begging are the occupations of the great majority, although a few work in the mines and in agriculture. - Chica-

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, FEB. 17.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Labels at the head of their columns

As LONG as Pennsylvania and Delaware continue to ballot for United States senators so long will the country be provided with argument favoring the taking of matters of that sort from the hands of state legislators. Let the people select senators, and the work will be done more quickly and the senate, doubtless, improved.

WORKING FOR DEWEY.

Although Admiral Dewey is far away from the strife of American politics he counts his friends in this country by the million, and the great majority of them believe he should be elevated to the rank of admiral, holding that position as long as he lives. There have been few admirals in the history of this nation, but all have been men who stood head and shoulders above their fellow officers. That is why the public believes Dewey should have the highest honor the country can give any man of his profession.

SAVAGES.

The American friends of Aguinaldo and his forces were given a severe jolt when they learned that the Filipinos had fired on our flag from under a flag of truce. The incident may not in itself be of the greatest importance, but it serves to show the class of savages with which this nation has to deal. All the landation of Senator Hale will not do away with the fact that Aguinaldo is unscrupulous and his followers have learned well the lesson taught by their leader. There can be no real sympathy for the insurgent chief or his cause as long as he permits methods unknown to civilized warfare. Why should there, in any circumstance, be sympathy in the United States for an enemy of this country?

TRUSTS THAT SUCCEED.

When the object of a combination of capital is to earn big dividends on an amount much larger than that actually invested in the business it seeks to control there must be some doubt as to the outcome of the venture. Only the most | the original price, at careful management and the exercise of the keenest business sense can make success possible. From present indications the American Potteries' company Two Men will begin business well equipped with all requisites, but, however successful its course.

CARING FOR THE POOR.

The severe weather has brought out with added force the well known fact for $2 at that every community has its proportion of poor, and it has been shown with equal strength that charitable men and women are willing to aid these unfortunates in the hour of their extremity. While the calls for help have been materially decreased by the prosperity the country has been enjoying, there have been a sufficient number to give all who desired to aid their fellows the opportunity. Relief has been prompt, particularly in the large cities, and the showing is one of which the whole country can be proud, proving as it does that America, even in existing times, can think of something nearer home than wars and rumors of wars.

It Blazed Out, Burning Little Hugh Wallace.

HE RAN INTO THE STREET

Going as Far as Center Alley In Washington, and Was Taken Home by a Pedestrian-He Is Seriously Injured but May Live.

Hugh Wallace, aged 5 years, was badly burned this morning at 10 o'clock. His injuries are such that it is not known whether they will prove serious. Shortly before that hour Mrs. Wallace went to a grocery at the foot of Washington street and left the young boy to look after a 3-months-old baby. While the mother was away the youngster secured an oil can and commenced to empty the contents in the stove. While doing this the flames ignited his clothing. The boy ran into the street and then to Center alley where he was caught by a man passing at the time. The individual took off his overcoat, and wrapping it around the child, smothered the flames. The child was carried to its home and a physician was summoned who dressed the injuries. He may live.

TROUBLE

Because of a Discharged Hotel Employe.

There was trouble in a downtown hotel last night when the proprietor discharged an employe and he refused to go without his clothing. The owner said the man owned him 50 cents and would not deliver the clothing until the amount was paid.

Officer Whan was called in and the colored gentleman stated the proprietor was 50 cents in debt to him. The officer told the men they would have to go through a process of law before he could help them. No arrests had been made or complaints filed up to a late hour this afternoon.

WOES OF A FARMER.

He Was Drunk and Had a Hard Time of It.

Last night a farmer, who was crippled and seemed to be laboring with an over lose of liquor, attracted a great deal of the control of the con and seemed to be laboring with an over dose of liquor, attracted a great deal of attention in Sixth street.

When he reached the Diamond he slipped and fell in a pool of water and slipped and fell in a pool of water and was unable to get to his feet until he was assisted. Later he fell a short distance farther up the street and again fell at the corner of Broadway. He was assisted to his feet on each occasion, and finally a man was found who put him in his wagon and started him for home.

For the First Time In the History of Columbiana County a Jury Has Found a Man Guilty of Criminal Slander—Details of the Case.

LISBON, Feb. 17.-[Special]-The will of Susan A. Stewart was not probated yesterday, as one witness had not testified.

Mrs. Stewart divided the property among nieces and nephews and gave $300 toward erecting a hospital in Liver. pool. The remainder of her estate, after paying debts and devises, she directs, shall be given to the India mission of the United Presbyterian church. She nominated M. O. WILSON FOUND GUILTY

Although He Had Forty-Three Witnesses on His Side.

LISBON, Feb. 17. - [Special] - The trial of Homer O. Wilson, of New Garden, came to an end last night when the jury pronounced him guilty, the case life. having occupied part of two days. Wilson was charged with criminal slander, Sadie Sultner, of New Garden, being the object of his tongue. The testimony showed that Wilson had unsolicited gone to John Reamer, who was waiting on Miss Sultner, and had told him she was in a delicate condition and he had better quit going with her. The defendant relied largely for his defense in the fact the state must prove that Miss Sultner is a woman of good repute, and he brought 43 witnesses to prove that her reputation for virtue and chastity was bad. He did not succeed, as his witnesses did not testify as he expected. To swear away a woman's good character before a court is not an easy matter, as some witnesses decided after the rigid cross examination at the hands of Prosecutor Brookes.

It is the first prosecution of this kind ever known in the county, and because it has terminated in conviction it is hoped it will end the practice.

Criminal Court.

Shaffer, of Salem, gave bond for $300 purpose of bringing to this country his for his appearance in court when wife and son. The man is generally wanted. A serious criminal charge is against him.

ROBBED A STORE.

Thieves Succeeded In Getting Away

With Merchandise. Thieves last night entered the store of Samler Bros. by forcing the transom over the front door. They made a general inspection of the store and broke open the cash drawer, taking $16.81. They also took six dozen of rings, some silver ware, gents' furnishing goods, umbrellas and neckwear, and even went so far as to take some goods out of the the front door, on the inside, and the animal in the river. The water was thieves probably left the way they about four feet deep at the place and went in.

EMERGENCY WARNINGS.

They Will Be Sent Out From Columbus When the Weather Changes.

Section Director Smith, of the weather station at Columbus, is sending out an important circular letter. It deals with what are known as emergency warnings, and states that they are distributd at the expense of the government and are the means of prevening much damage to property and at times save

He says the warning service should not be confused with the daily weather forecasts, and as they are of extreme conditions they are necessarily very infrequent, but their infrequency makes it all the more necessary that complete arrangements be made and a thorough understanding had in regard to the warnings and what use is to be made of

He closes his circular by asking all local telephone and telegraph lines to get the warnings from the station and to inform his office if they would be of any benefit in the localities in which they do business. The warnings are usually posted in prominent places, but the station makes arrangements with one person to receive them and local arrangements are afterwards made.

MRS. HULME DIED TODAY

After a Long and Useful Life In This Place

Yesterday Morning, but Was Not Unconscious Until the Afternoon-George Wells Passed Away This Morning From the Same Cause.

her home in Snort street.

Deceased suffered from a stroke of paralysis eight years ago, but recovered in the open country to some extent, but her health. Last Wednesday at 5 o'clock she had another stroke of paralysis, and never recovered. She was conscious last evening until 5 o'clock, but at that time she lost consciousness, and died this morning at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Hulme was aged 61 years and had been a resident of the city for over 30 years. She was one of the best known and most highly respected residents of the city. She was a member of the First M. E. church, and had been an earnest Christian all her life. Every move that would tend to the advancement of Christianity received her hearty support.

She leaves seven children, five daughters and two sons, to mourn her loss: Mrs. O. H. Sebring, Mrs. W. H. Cochran, Mrs. Charles Knoblock, Mrs. William Tritt and Will and George of this city, and Mrs. Harry Calhoun, West Newton.

The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

George Wells died this morning at his home in Seventh street after a brief illness.

Deceased had two strokes of paralysis about two years ago, and since that time has been failing in health. Last Sunday he suffered another stroke of paralysis and was only conscious for about an hour during his brief illness.

Deceased was aged 75 years and was born in Allegheny county, Pa. He moved across the river in Hancock county about 80 years ago, and resided there until some 10 years ago, when he came to this state and has been a resident of East Liverpool for over five years.

He was very well known here and business interests of the city, and in his earlier days was one of the most prominent farmers in this vicinity.

He leaves one sister, Mrs. Margaret Snyder, of Wilkinsburg, Pa., who is the last of a family of 11 children. Nine children are left to mourn his loss, Mrs. W. J. Mercer, Agricolia, Kan.; W. H. Wells, Mrs. Maggie Mercer, George Wells, Miss Mazie Wells, of this city; John Wells, Chester; Mrs. Thomas bottle. Finley, East End; Miss Ida Wells, this city, and Mrs. Harry Mercer, Grant, W. Va.

The arrangements for the funeral have not vet been made and will not be made until word is received from the daughter who resides in Kansas.

IN AN AWFUL CONDITION.

The Streets Are Not Pleasant Places to Walk.

The streets were in awful condition this morning and many of them concontinued so during the day.

Many pavements were so slippery that walking on them was impossible, and pedestrians used the roadway. At other places there was no ice, but the snow had been so cut up as to make the rear, entailing an aggregate loss walking a hardship. Out on the hill streets the ice was thick and there were many accidents, but few which resulted the intersection of Thirteenth street seriously. Asked That a Family Be Let Go to Manila.

Manila, Feb. 17.—(11:50 a. m.)—Ex-Consul of the United States O. F. Williams is in receipt of an application from a member of the insurgent congress at WAS STRICKEN BY PARALYSIS Malolos for a pass through the American lines for a family of 12 persons who are desirous of taking refuge in Manila. This is regarded as significant, as showing that the most intelligent rebels realize that their families are safe only within American territory.

With the exception of a few shots fired into a small body of rebels, who Mrs. Emma Hulme, wife of the late were attempting to a destroy a railroad William Hulme, died this morning at bridge near Caloocan, all has been quiet along the line.

> Last night the heat affected the men otherwise the health of the troops shows a marked improvement since the beginning of hostilities.

> Troops K and I of the Fourth cavalry encountered the enemy's scouts Wednesday near Paranaque and exchanged a few volleys with them. During the fighting Trooper Wiltner of K troop was wounded in the right arm.

The cruiser Buffalo fired four small shells at a part of the enemy which the cruiser's searchlight showed to be mounting a battery near Paranaque. The enemy made no reply and withrew their guns to Paranaque.

It was rumored that the Filipinos in the interior were in sore straits and are now quarreling among themselves, but it was impossible to confirm these reports, as all communication was cut off.

A large body of the enemy, presumably reconnoitering, was discovered on the right of Brigadier General King's position, near San Pedro Macati, Thursday morning. The entire brigade turned out and, after an exchange of volleys, the rebels retreated into the jungle and disappeared.

DAMAGING TO CORNISH.

Dr. Potter Said In His Judgment the Young Man Was Not at All Sick.

New York, Feb. 17 .- A large number of witnesses were put on the stand at the coroner's inquiry into the death of Mrs. Kate J. Adams, but the two around whom interest centered were Assistant District Attorney John F. Mc-Intyre and Dr. S. E. Potter. McIntyre's testimony, however, threw little light upon the mystery.

Dr. Potter, who had been called in to assist Dr. Hitchcock in attending Mrs. Adams, made the statement that he saw no evidences whatever of sickness in it dates from the days of the Druids, was prominently identified with the Cornish at that time, and that in his judgment Cornish was not sick at all. Dr. Potter distinctly remembered, he said, seeing two glasses on the table when he visited the Adams flat, one of which contained a sediment. The other contained no sediment that he could remember.

He testified also that instead of a heaping teaspoonful, as stated by Cornish and others, Mrs. Adams had received barely a half teaspoonful of the mixture, as evidenced by the amount of the mixture that remained in the

UNION LABELS.

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympa thizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent work. ing hours, and union labor employed.

WAIT FOR NEXT WEEK

Is the Word Being Passed Around at Present.

Affairs In New York, the Story Goes, Are Rapidly Being Arranged-No Trouble Being Experienced In Placing Stock, Work Here Closing Up.

The word is being passed around among manufacturers in this city that next week will bring the information they have so long sought concerning the future of the American Potteries company and, what is equally of importance to them, the time when they will receive payment for their plants.

From the most reliable source the NEWS REVIEW learns that the trouble oncerning stock subscriptions has been largely imaginary, and payment by the capitalists who have become interested will be made Feb. 21, next Tuesday. Then will follow arrangements for the settlement, and it is believed Feb 25 will be the date when it will be made. The statement is made positively that this is the arrangement, and unless some hitch occurs it will be earried out. The gentleman who is the News Review's informant cannot understand what can interfere to cause delay unless the whole thing is to fall through.

The work of the expert accountants at the Thompson House goes steadily on although they have not now a large force of assistants. While Mr. Kernan will give out nothing for publication it is learned the work is drawing to a le American Pottery Making Its Way In the West.

J. C. Olds, of the firm of Olds & King, of Portland, Ore., was in the city yesterday placing orders. In speaking of the outlook for the pottery trade in the west to a reporter, Mr. Olds said:

"There is considerable foreign ware old throughout the west, but American made goods are fast coming to the front. The main reason is that should an order be placed for goods in Liverpool, Eng., today it is probable nothing would be received this year. It is true the rates by rail from your city a e higher, but we must have the goods at any cost. Yes, I am convinced more of your ware will be sold in the west this year than was last."

SNOW BALLING

ls Causing no End of Annoyance In Town.

The recent thaw has caused the small boys to have a great deal of sport snow balling. The police should make an effort to break up the practice as it is a very unpleasant experience to be struck by a snow ball almost as hard as a rock, and the boys do not care who they hit.

CURRENT MISCELLANY.

Mrs. William C. Whitney's apartments in the palace her husband is now having built in New York will be more superb and costly than any other in this country, according to the accounts printed in a contemporary. The walls will be covered with silk that cost $35 SETTLEMENT EXPECTED FEB. 25 a yard. The furniture was made to order in France at an expense of $50,000. The bathroom is snow white marble, with the tub cut from a block of the stone and carved outside like a cameo. The faucets are of gold and the floor a work of rare art in mosaic. The ceilings of all the rooms were painted in France at a cost of $50,000 more and sent over to be put in place by workmen sent with them. There are four of the rooms -a bedroom, boudoir, dressing room and bathroom. The drawing room is to be far more gorgeous than any other in New York, and on its walls will hang tapestries for which Mr. Whitney paid the fabulous sum of $1,000,000 in Paris. In no museum of all France is there anything like such a splendid collection of webs. They were made at the Louvre Palace before even the days of the Gobelins, and for exquisite execution are unsurpassed in the world. The colors are as clear and soft and beautiful as if they had been made yesterday. The border, which is about 14 inches wide, is crowded with fruit and flowers in color on a ground of gold, and the gold is as brilliant today as a new eagle, for the threads are of the pure metal. The furniture will be in keeping with these rare tapestries. The wood is of teak, carved like lace and of the highest polish. Bronzes, miniatures, paintings and china are of equal splendor, and nothing but the most costly things are to be brought into the furnishing of the room. The curtains are of lace, and the shades are of cream white grosgrain silk .-New York Letter.

From One Methodist Parsonage.

It is stated that Rudyard Kipling is to answer to the toast of "Literature" at the next Royal academy banquet. says The Christian Advocate. The same announcement says that Mr. Kipling is the nephew of the president of the academy, Sir Edward J. Poynter. This reminds us of a conversation we had with Dr. William M. Millburn, who never forgets what he is sure will interest his friends. On our asking him if he had met the Rev. Frederick Macdonald, one of the secretaries of the Wesleyan Missionary society, and a fraternal delegate to our general conference in 1880, he said: "Yes, I know him well, and the last time I saw him I asked him about his father, the Rev. George Brown Macdonald, and his family. George Brown Macdonald was a Wesleyan preacher and his father before him.

"Mr. Macdonald's answer was: 'My It is thought Reverend Barrickman only brother died in New York. My oldest sister became the wife of Sir Edward Burne-Jones, the artist; my second sister became the wife of Mr. now Sir Edward-Poynter, director of the National gallery, and, since the death of Sir John Millais, president of the Royal academy. My third sister is the wife of a great ironmaster in the west of England and a member of par-liament. My fourth sister is the moth-er of Rudyard Kipling. My fifth sister is unmarried. '

Wanted Them All.

Julia Ward Howe was once talking with a dilapidated bachelor, who retained little but his conceit. "It is time now," he said, pompously, "for me to settle down as a married man, but I want so much. I want youth, health. wealth, of course, beauty, grace''-

"Yes," said Mrs. Howe, sympathetically, "you poor man, you do want them all."

The right leg is far more subject to accidents than the left. It has been found that the ratio is about 13 serious accidents to the right leg to three to the song of the Patriot. America the brave, America the bold, America the strong As thy proud hills are old! Forever may thou be The shrine of liberty, The land of fearless men! And honor, honor, honor, Inspire each citizen, That when he strikes in battle His strength be strength of ten!

America our hope, America so dear, America the dream Of poet, sage and seer! Forever may thy laws Before injustice pause
And equal rights bestow! And virtue, virtue, virtue, Through all thy actions flow, And duty bear thy banner Wherever it may go!

America the broad, America the great, America the firm And ocean guarded state, Forever stretch thy hands To all benighted lands And give them of thy good! With valor, valor, valor Breast every field and flood Until the last old tyrant Bows down to brotherhood!

America the free, America the true, America the home Of the red, white and blue! Forever may thy name Upon the scroll of fame With dazzling luster shine! And glory, glory, glory, Eternally be thine, And every star be steadfast And every deed divine!

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Thomas Forster was an Allegheny visitor today.

Mr. Bergman, of Salem, has taken a position in the city, and will remain here.

Thomas Whalen, of Salineville, is in the city the guest of William Nath, Second street.

George Reed, of Gardendale, has commenced the erection of an addition to his residence.

The electric light at the corner of Fifth and Market streets was out last night for several hours.

Linemen for the telephone company are today stringing wires and making connections in the city.

A number of sleighing parties left the city last evening, and returned at various hours after midnight.

The gates at the Broadway crossing are still broken and are useless. It is though they will be repaired before the end of another week.

Jason H. Brookes, who has been in Lisbon during the week attending court, will return to the city tomorrow. There will be no court next week.

Edward Lee, of this city, vesterday purchased a fast driving horse from parties in Calcutta. The animal will be brought to the city next week.

Werd received from Akron states that Joseph Barker is very seriously ill. The pottery at that place is running day and night that they may keep up with their orders.

Mayor Bough was called to West Point this morning on account of the serious illness of his father, at his home at that place. He will return to the city, it is expected, tomorrow.

William Trover, of Gardendale, suffered a severe attack of chills yesterd wafternoon. He was a member of Company E, and has not been entirely well since his return from Cuba.

G. D. Herger, of Beaver, Pa., and Wesley Hilfinger, Rochester, Pa., were in the city today in attendance at the funeral of Elwood Pusey. The gentlemen are cousins of the deceased.

The funeral of the late Elwood Pusey took place this afternoon from his late residence in Fourth street. A large number of persons were in attendance. Interment was made at Riverview.

The epidemic of grip which held the city so long in its grasp is loosening its hold, but physicians do not think it will disappear for months to come. There are at present many cases in town, but the number is steadily decreasing.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams and daughter, of Walnut street, left this morning for Salineville where they this afternoon attended the funeral of Alice Hannemus who died Wednesday night. They will return to the city this evening.

The Thompson Pottery company during the week shipped a car of ware to Sandusky, while the Knowles, Taylor & Knowles company sent one to Charleston, W. Va. Carload shipments from the various potteries are increasing rapidly.

A well-known young woman slipped and fell as she crossed Fourth and Washington streets last night, and half a dozen loungers at the postoffice hastened to her assistance. She was not badly hurt, but two of them took her home.

The rush for houses has already commenced, and one agent who handles a considerable amount of property said today that he had more applications than he could handle. In his opinion a great many people will move before the first of May.

Early in the week Agent Thomas received an order which prevented the sending of freight to the east. Now that the blockade has been raised an order is expected ordering the forwarding of eastern freight, shipments to begin Monday.

You all know that clothing manufacturers employ traveling salesmen. That these salesmen carry as samples, one of each kind of suit or overcoat that their respective firms make. You probably also know that these samples are the model garments, the Best the House Can Produce. No matter how cheap the goods or how fine, the making is the best, superior to most custom work.

For instance, a house employing a salesman must make each season six suits or six overcoats of each kind, one for each salesman. This explanation is probably necessary to make you properly appreciate a great treat in store for you. The BiGGEST HIT of our experience.
